

The Three Little Pigs - Play script

Characters: Narrator, Mother, Pig 1, Pig2, Pig3, Man, Wolf

Scene 1

Narrator: Once upon a time three pigs left their mother's home and went into the world.

Three Pigs: Bye Mother.

Mother: Good-bye my little sons.

Narrator: The three pigs went different ways. Soon pig 1 met a man who was selling straw.

Pig 1: I need some straw, would you sell it to me?

Man: Of course. Take it.

Narrator: Pig 1 paid the man and went to build his house. Later, Pig 2 met a man who was selling wood.

Pig 2: Please Sir, I need some wood to build my house. Would you sell it to me?

Man: Yes. Take it.

Narrator: Pig 2 paid the man and went on his way to make his wood house. Later, Pig 3 met a man who was selling bricks.

Pig 3: Excuse me Sir, I need some bricks. Are they for sale?

Man: Of course. Take them.

Narrator: Pig 3 paid the man and went on his way to build his brick house. When the three pigs finished their houses they moved in. Pig 1 was taking a nap when someone knocked at the door. Pig 1 looked through the window and saw a wolf.

Wolf: Little pig, little pig, let me in!

Pig 1: Not by the hair on my chinny-chin-chin.

Wolf: Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house down!!

Narrator: The wolf huffed and puffed and destroyed pig 1's house. Pig 1 ran all the way to pig 2's house. When he got there Pig 1 told Pig 2 what had happened. Pig 2 invited Pig 1 to live with him. After a few days, there was a knock at the door. The two pigs looked out the window and it was the wolf.

Children's Self-determination in the Context of Early Childhood Education and Services Federico Farini, Angela Scollan, 2019-06-26 This book investigates the position of young children's self-determination within a range of social contexts such as education, social care, mass media, health, politics, law and the family. It brings to the fore the voices of the children in the present with their interests, agendas and rights. Based on original primary research, the chapters tackle hegemonic discourses on children's self-determination as well as current policies and practices. They address a broad range of topics from the planning of role play to national policies from the use of digital technologies for pedagogy to children's health and well-being and from democratic practices in the classroom to the preservation of traditional family values. The book presents case studies to unravel how childhood and young children's self-determination are constructed at the intersection with intergenerational relationships. Coming from different disciplines and using a diverse range of methodological traditions, the contributions in the volume eventually converge to generate a rich, complex and multi-layered analysis of contemporary cultures of childhood and young children's rights.

The Routledge International Handbook of Early Childhood Play Tina Bruce, Pentti Hakkarainen, Milda Bredikyte, 2017-06-14

Historical changes in play are taking place in childhood all over the world with the digitalisation of children's lives. Researchers are worried about the disappearance of advanced forms of play and the prioritization of time spent with loving adults supporting play with babies and toddlers. At the same time, our understanding about the crucial importance of individual development is becoming clearer. The Routledge International Handbook of Early Childhood Play explores these issues and more. It proposes the importance of adult participation in play as adult guidance brings the possibility of moral, cultural and symbolic elements to children's play and enhances the educational opportunities in adult-child joint play. The book also examines the aesthetic dimension of play and its role in the development of imagination and creativity. With contributors from many parts of the world, this unique handbook brings together the latest research and highlights practice which focuses on play. This is an essential and engaging read for all students, academics, teachers and practitioners with an interest in play.

International Handbook of Early Childhood Education Marilyn Fleer, Bert van Oers, 2017-10-10

This international handbook gives a comprehensive overview of findings from longstanding and contemporary research, theory and practices in early childhood education in the Northern and Southern hemispheres. The first volume of the handbook addresses theory, methodology and the research activities and research needs of particular regions. The second volume examines in detail innovations and longstanding programs, curriculum and assessment and conceptions and research into child, family and communities. The two volumes of this handbook address the current theory, methodologies and research needs of specific countries and provide insight into existing global similarities in early childhood practices. By paying special attention to what is happening in the larger world contexts, the volumes provide a representative overview of early childhood education practices and research and redress the current North-South imbalance of published work on the subject.

Play and Literacy in Early Childhood Kathleen A. Roskos, 2017-07-05

This volume brings together studies, research syntheses and critical commentaries that examine play-literacy relationships from cognitive, ecological and cultural perspectives. The cognitive view focuses on mental processes that appear to link play and literacy activities the ecological stance examines opportunities to engage in literacy related play in specific environments and the social cultural position stresses the interface between the literacy and play cultures of home community and the school Examining play from these diverse perspectives provides a multidimensional view that deepens understanding and opens up new avenues for research and educational practice Each set of chapters is followed by a critical review by a distinguished play scholar These commentaries focus is to hold research on play and literacy up to scrutiny in terms of scientific significance methodology and utility for practice A Foreword by Margaret Meek situates these studies in the context of current trends in literacy learning and instruction Earlier studies on the role of play in early literacy acquisition provided considerable information about the types of reading and writing activities that children engage in during play and how this literacy play is affected by variables such as props peers and adults However they did not deal extensively as this book does with the functional significance of play in the literacy development of individual children This volume pushes the study of play and literacy into new areas It is indispensable reading for researchers and graduate students in the fields of early childhood education and early literacy development
