Authentic Discipleship Martin Harris, 2019-02-06 Authentic discipleship is a step by step method for achieving Christian spiritual maturity It is a Bible based process using 2 Peter chapter 1 as its source The Apostle Peter reveals the process at the end of his life where he is expressing his concern for the spiritual well being of his flock The process reveals the actual expectations of the Lord for the spiritual development of Christian people for ministry and how to accomplish it The people were first called Christians at Antioch because they followed the teachings of Christ The term was meant to be derogatory but was never considered so by them They not only followed Him but also actually intended to allow the Living Savior to express Himself through them even as John the Baptist cried out He must increase but I must decrease The more Christlike we can become the greater our discipleship is realized It is the aim of this book to help Christians who so desire to realize their goal as the Lord permits

Palmer,1991-12 Love Has Its Reasons Earl F. Palmer,1977 The Heart Has Its Reasons Beata Toth,2016-05-26 The Heart Has Its Reasons explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotion and reason embodied in the Biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human rationality have long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one s view of the theological significance of human affect In what way is our likeness to God realised in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affect by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors like Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus and Thomas Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors such as Blaise Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank and John Paul II Beata Toth pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity Catalog of Copyright Entries. Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira, 2001-06-07 Soren Kierkegaard's Works of Love 1847 a series of deliberations on the commandment to love one's neighbor has often been condemned by critics Here Ferreira seeks to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaard's most important works He shows that Kierkegaard's deliberations on love are highly relevant to some important themes in contemporary ethics including impartiality duty equality mutuality reciprocity self love sympathy and sacrifice Ferreira also argues that Works of Love bears on issues peculiar to a religious ethic such as the role of God as middle term and the possibility of preserving the aesthetic dimensions of love in a religious ethic of relation Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1902 The Church Monthly ,1862 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1858 Divine Anger in the Hebrew Bible Deena E. Grant, 2023-07-21 In this book we explore the aim expressions and outcomes of God's anger in the Hebrew Bible We consider divine anger against the backdrop of human anger in order to discern those aspects of it that are recognizably human from those facets of it that are distinctly divine Furthermore we examine passages from a range of literary contexts across major biblical collections in order to distinguish those features of divine anger that are elemental to its definition from those that are limited to individual collections The sum of these conclusions forms our answer to the question What does the Bible mean when it describes God as angry Dogmatics III Emil Brunner, 2025-01-01 One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner's Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God's self revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self communication Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers
