at the artist's work in light of her time as an advocate for women's intellectual life and political emancipation. Esteemed by her contemporaries for her commitment to what she and her radical colleagues in Paris termed the new art now called impressionism, Cassatt brought her discerning gaze and compositional inventiveness to the study of the subtle often psychological social interactions of women in public and private spaces. Focusing on key moments of engagement and change over the artist's long career, art historian Griselda Pollock discusses Cassatt's artistic training across Europe, her profound study of the Old Masters and places fresh emphasis on the artist's interest in Manet and other contemporary French and Spanish painters as well as her influence on American collections of French modernism. Now revised with a new preface, updates to the bibliography and color illustrations throughout, this book offers a reevaluation of the work of this important artist as seen through the frames of class, gender, space and difference.

Clement, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, Annick Houzé, 2000-02-28. This reference organizes and describes the primary and secondary literature surrounding Mary Stevenson Cassatt, Berthe Morisot, Eva Gonzalés and Marie Bracquemond, four major women Impressionist artists. The Impressionist group included several women artists of considerable ability whose works and lives were largely ignored until the advent of feminist art criticism in the early 1970s. They studied, worked and exhibited with their male counterparts including Degas, Manet, Monet and Pissarro. The entries provide extensive coverage of the careers, critical reception, exhibition history and growing reputations of these four female artists and discuss women Impressionists in general as they shared the challenges of becoming accepted as professional artists in late 19th century society. Containing nearly 900 citations of manuscripts, books, articles, reproductions, films, exhibitions and reviews, this unique sourcebook will appeal to both art and women's studies.
