Mass Communication And Mass Deception:

Mass Communication and Mass Deception Arnold Itwaru, 1988 Mass Deception Scott A. Bonn, 2010 Mass Deception argues that the George W Bush administration manufactured public support for the war on Iraq Page 4 of cover Mass Communication, Or Mass Deception Tony Emerson, 1976 Mass Media, Mass Propaganda Anthony R. Dimaggio, 2008-01-01 This work examines how the mainstream American media reacts to pro war and anti war themes throughout the War on Terror in regards to the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Using a political economy approach the author addresses the ways in which corporations that own media reinforce official doctrines and propaganda by contrasting the content of American media to that of other global media The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin, 2019-11-12 The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society discusses media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites social media mobile media and describes the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society This encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of media within social and cultural contexts exploring the development of the mediated communication industry mediated communication regulations and societal interactions and effects This reference work will look at issues such as free expression and government regulation of media how people choose what media to watch listen to and read and how the influence of those who control media organizations may be changing as new media empower previously unheard voices The role of media in society will be explored from international multidisciplinary perspectives via approximately 700 articles drawing on research from communication and media studies sociology anthropology social psychology politics and business The Red Scare, Politics, and the Federal Communications Commission, 1941-1960 Susan L. Brinson, 2004-05-30 The Red Scare at the FCC started when James Lawrence Fly led the agency in many important decisions that were inspired by the New Deal These decisions outraged both the broadcasting industry and politically conservative legislators causing them to accuse the FCC of Communist sympathies This book analyzes the political transition taken by the FCC that turned it into an agency that fully participated in the Red Scare of the 1950s This book analyzes many significant FCC cases and policies that have never been considered within the context of New Deal policymaking or its impact This work is the first to look into the impact of the Red Scare on an executive agency Its combination of new archival and behind the scenes information makes this book a great addition to the growing body of research on media history and regulation Popular Culture Theory and Methodology Harold E. Hinds, Marilyn Ferris Motz, Angela M. S. Nelson, 2006 Since its birth in the 1960s the study of popular culture has come a long way in defining its object its purpose and its place in academe Emerging along the margins of a scholarly establishment that initially dismissed anything popular as unworthy of serious study trivial formulaic easily digestible escapist early practitioners of the discipline stubbornly set about creating the theoretical and methodological framework upon which a deeper understanding could be founded Through seminal essays that document the maturation of the field as it gradually made headway toward legitimacy Popular Culture Theory and Methodology provides students of popular culture with both the historical context and the critical apparatus required for further growth For all its progress the study of popular culture remains a site of healthy questioning What exactly is popular culture How should it be studied What forces come together in producing disseminating and consuming it Is it always conformist or has it the power to subvert refashion resist and destabilize the status quo How does it differ from folk culture mass culture commercial culture Is the line between high and low merely arbitrary Do the popular arts have a distinctive aesthetics This collection offers a wide range of responses to these and similar questions Edited by Harold E Hinds Jr Marilyn F Motz and Angela M S Nelson Popular Culture Theory and Methodology charts some of the key turning points in the culture wars and leads us through the central debates in this fast developing discipline Authors of the more than two dozen studies several of which are newly published here include John Cawelti Russel B Nye Ray B Browne Fred E H Schroeder John Fiske Lawrence Mintz David Feldman Roger Rollin Harold Schechter S Elizabeth Bird and Harold E Hinds Jr A valuable bibliography completes the volume

War and the Media Paul M. Haridakis, Barbara S. Hugenberg, Stanley T. Wearden, 2014-01-10 Mass communication is used by governments to support their war efforts while media images are created or manipulated to inform persuade or guide the consumers of those images But this book looks beyond the obvious The contributors examine historical and contemporary examples that reflect the role of the media or mass communication or both during wartime The essays highlight the centrality of communication to the perpetuation and to the resolution of war suggesting that the symbiotic relationship between communication and war is as important to understand as war itself

The Media of Mass Communication John Vivian, 2007 This 30th jubilee volume 2010 of Palaeoecology of Africa looks back and reflects the state of the art of what is actually known on former African climates and ecosystems in the format of review articles authored by specialists in the field New research articles on climate and ecosystem dynamics as well as applied topics on geomorphic hazards and future environmental trends in Africa are included This book will be of interest to all concerned with ecosystems dynamics tropical forests savannahs deserts and related development problems of third world countries especially ecologists botanists earth scientists e g Quaternary and recent climate change regional planners It will also be valuable for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates as a reference for review and overview articles as well as a source of information for new original manuscripts and reviews on the state of the art of long term and Quaternary and Holocene landscape evolution esp in subsaharan Africa Palaeobotanists Palynologists and Quaternarists will equally find this edition useful for their work

Media and Propaganda in an Age of Disinformation Nelson Ribeiro, Barbie Zelizer, 2025-03-19 A critical and timely collection that argues for the centrality of propaganda in discussions about the contemporary media landscape and its informational ecosystems This book explores how propaganda a foundational concept within media and communication studies has recently been replaced by alternative terms disinformation misinformation and fake news that fail to capture the continuities and disruptions of ongoing strategic attempts to mis guide public opinion Edited by Nelson Ribeiro and Barbie Zelizer the collection highlights how these concepts must be understood as part of a long legacy of propaganda and not just as new phenomena that have emerged in the context of the digital media environment Chapters explore the strategies and effects of propaganda through a variety of globally diverse case studies featuring both democracies and autocratic regimes and highlight how only by understanding propagandistic forms and strategies can we fully begin to understand how public opinion is being molded today by those who resort to deception and falsehood to gain or keep hold of power An important resource for students and scholars of media and communication studies and those who are studying and or researching media and propaganda media and power disinformation fake news and political communication The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication John G. Oetzel, Stella Ting-Toomey, 2006-01-18 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication Integrating Theory Research and Practice is the first resource to synthesize key theories research and practices of conflict communication in a variety of contexts Editors John Oetzel and Stella Ting Toomey as well as expert researchers in the field emphasize constructive conflict management from a communication perspective which places primacy in the message as the focus of conflict research and practice

Rethinking the Frankfurt School Jeffrey T. Nealon, Caren Irr, 2012-02-01 A reexamination of key Frankfurt School thinkers Benjamin Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse in the light of contemporary theory and cultural studies across the disciplines Rethinking the Frankfurt School asks what consequences such a rethinking might have for study of the Frankfurt School on its own terms Ironically contemporary theorists find themselves turning back toward the Frankfurt School precisely for the reasons it was once scorned for a notion of subjects whose desires are less liberated and multiplied than they are produced and regulated by a far reaching very nearly totalizing global culture industry Indeed as new questions concerning globalization and economic redistribution emerge while analyses of identity politics and subjective transgression become less central to contemporary theory and cultural studies the future of the Frankfurt School looks as promising and productive as its past has proven to be

Foundations of Critical Media and Information Studies Christian Fuchs, 2011-03-01 Foundations of Critical Media and Information Studies lays down foundations for the analysis of media information and information technology in 21st century information society as well as introducing the theoretical and empirical tools necessary for the critical study of media and information Christian Fuchs shows the role classical critical theory can play for analyzing the information society and the information economy as well as analyzing the role of the media and the information economy in economic development the new imperialism and the new economic crisis The book critically discusses transformations of the Internet web 2 0 introduces the notion of alternative media as critical media and shows the critical role media and information technology can play in contemporary society This book provides an excellent introduction to the study of media information technology and information society making it a valuable reference tool for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of subjects such as Media Studies Sociology of Media Social Theory and New Media

Reading Media Theory Brett Mills, David M. Barlow, 2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we're all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading's key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects

Media Cultures Michael Skovmand, Kim Christian Schrøder, 2016-10-04 This book first published in 1992 challenges the elitism and cultural pessimism of much Anglo American and Continental cultural debate with regard to the role and power of transnational media practices In a series of ten innovative essays an international group of media researchers explores a wide range of cultural practices across national borders and the cultural politics associated with these everyday practices and debates

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 8:2 Louay M. Safi, Eric A. Winkel, Masudul A. Choudhury, Ola Abdel-Kawi, Fazal R. Khan, R. Hrair Dekmejian, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and

metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Dictionary of Media and Communication Studies James Watson, Anne Hill, 2015-10-22 A comprehensive lexicon of all aspects of the study of interpersonal group mass communication and the world of internet communication Justice Ignited Brian Martin, 2007 Attacks can backfire on attackers_sometimes spectacularly Examples include the beating of Rodney King by Los Angeles police in 1991 the surveillance of Ralph Nader in 1965 and the invasion of Iraq in 2003 Attackers often inhibit adverse reactions by covering up the attack devaluing the target and using other methods Through numerous detailed case studies Justice Ignited reveals the most promising tactics that can make unfair attacks backfire Searching God in the Media Market: Convergence of Theology and Media John Joshva Raja, 2011-09-26 This book is holding an excellent dialogue between theology and media disciplines It provides challenges to theologians to think about their perspectives attitudes and practices of media and technology while it also challenges those media personnel who are involved in religious broadcasting with nuance theological thinking This book on the one hand highlights the importance of recognizing the hermeneutic role of imagination aesthetical aspects and new genre of media and communication today and on the other hand critically engages with media institution and technology that work around only profit making and mere entertaining and thus alienating from real world practices and ideas within them This book brings out some controversies in this area to the light and hopes to initiate further discussions in this area of better community relationship and transformation through media and communication Having brought some new ideas into light this book brings back a good dialogue between theology and media which will help those involved in rediscovering God's mission within the churches within the media institutions and also within all those who serve humanity in various ways using the media and communication tools The Age of Netflix Cory Barker, Myc Wiatrowski, 2017-09-19 In 2016 Netflix with an already enormous footprint in the United States expanded its online streaming video service to 130 new countries adding more than 12 million subscribers in nine months and bringing its total to 87 million The effectiveness of Netflix's content management lies in its ability to appeal to a vastly disparate global viewership without a unified cache of content Instead the company invests in buying or developing myriad programming and uses sophisticated algorithms to narrowcast to micro targeted audience groups In this collection of new essays contributors explore how Netflix has become a cultural institution and transformed the way we consume popular media
