Memory, Grief, and Agency Sunder John Boopalan,2017-09-18 This book argues that an active memory of and grief over structural wrongs yields positive agency Such agency generates rites of moral responsibility that serve as antidotes to violent identities and catalyze hospitable social practices By comparing Indian and U S contexts of caste and race Sunder John Boopalan proposes that wrongs today are better understood as rituals of humiliation which are socially conditioned practices of domination affected by discriminatory logics of the past Grief can be redressive by transforming violent identities and hostile in group out group differences when guided by a liberative political theological imagination This volume facilitates interdisciplinary conversations between theorists and theologians of caste and race and those interested in understanding the relation between religion and power Dangerous Memory in Nagasaki Gwyn McClelland,2019-09-10 On 9th August 1945 the US dropped the second atomic bomb on Nagasaki Of the dead approximately 8500 were Catholic Christians representing over sixty percent of the community In this collective biography nine Catholic survivors share personal and compelling stories about the aftermath of the bomb and their lives since that day Examining the Catholic community s interpretation of the A bomb this book not only uses memory to provide a greater understanding of the destruction of the bombing but also links it to the past experiences of religious persecution drawing comparisons with the Secret Christian groups which survived in the Japanese countryside after the banning of Christianity Through in depth interviews it emerges that the memory of the atomic bomb is viewed through the lens of a community which had experienced suffering and marginalisation for more than 400 years Furthermore it argues that their dangerous memory confronts Euro American centric narratives of the atomic bombings whilst also challenging assumptions around a providential bomb Dangerous

Comics Memory Maaheen Ahmed, Benoît Crucifix, 2018-08-01 Despite the boom in scholarship in both Comics Studies and Memory Studies the two fields rarely interact especially with issues beyond the representation of traumatic and autobiographical memories in comics With a focus on the roles played by styles and archives in their physical and metaphorical manifestations this edited volume offers an original intervention highlighting several novel ways of thinking about comics and memory as comics memory Bringing together scholars as well as cultural actors the contributions combine studies on European and North American comics and offer a representative overview of the main comics genres and forms including superheroes Westerns newspaper comics diary comics comics reportage and alternative comics In considering the many manifestations of memory in comics as well as the functioning and influence of institutions public and private practices the book exemplifies new possibilities for understanding the complex entanglements of memory and comics communist country The essays analyze the ways in which Slovenian society has grappled with traumatic historical events and thus give insight into the ongoing struggle over the interpretation of Slovenia's past Given the proliferating illiberal tendencies in the political culture of numerous European countries the strategies of historical revisionism described in this issue are likely to be of considerable interest not only to scholars interested specifically in the case of Slovenia
