Comparative Characterization in the Sermon on the Mount Arren Bennet Lawrence,2017-03-24 The Sermon on the Mount contains many comparisons In this book the functions of these comparisons are studied by the methodology called comparative characterization Characterization is the way a character is characterized in a narrative Comparative characterization is the characterization of a character using comparisons In comparative characterization another character is used as a foil to bring out a characteristic trait of a concerned character Jesus characterized the ideal disciple in the Sermon on the Mount with many descriptions and imperatives To characterize the ideal disciple Jesus used many comparisons and highlighted the characteristic features that embody the ideal disciple The many comparisons used in the Sermon on the Mount are identified in this study through comparative characterization In addition the teleological purpose of the comparisons which is to play as foil to the characterization of the ideal disciple is identified and highlighted Thus this study identifies Jesus characterization of the ideal disciple and his complex portrayal of the ideal disciple with the many uses of comparisons in the descriptions and imperatives of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount

Joseph the Carpenter Philip Walker Jacobs, 2019-05-21 In this ground breaking examination of responses to Joseph the Carpenter Dr Jacobs offers fresh insight into the historic understanding and perception of this often forgotten figure Challenging assumptions about the ways Joseph was understood and perceived in the first several centuries of Christianity Jacobs begins his study with a thorough review of the earliest narrative portrayals of Joseph in the New Testament Subsequently he carefully traces the diverse responses to Joseph through the analysis of numerous works of art and narratives In the process he documents the presence of two trajectories one the most dominant which affirms the roles of Joseph presented in the nativity accounts and highlights his significance and another which diminishes these roles and consequently Joseph's significance While Jacobs's study documents the presence of tensions with respect to understanding and perception of Joseph within this period of Christianity it also reveals that Joseph had much more importance than has previously been acknowledged
