Miss America 1945 Bess Myerson And The Year That Changed Our Lives:

Miss America, 1945 Susan Dworkin, 1999-12-27 First time in paperback this unique biography and cultural history is based on history extensive research and interviews with more than one hundred witnesses from the period. Acclaimed novelist and playwright Susan Dworkin skillfully interweaves the absorbing first person account of how Bess Myerson became the country's first and still only Jewish Miss America in the same year that World War II ended with a fresh portrait of what life was like for women and Jews in America in the 1930s and 40s. Her tale of one girl's coming of age in pre-feminist America is poignant and appealing as much a cameo of an era as a work of biography. ALA Booklist
