Michaela A Tale Of Two Worlds:

Two Worlds Collided Karen Michelle Nutt, 2016-11-16 Evie Reid on a whim agrees to travel back in time to 1997 to change bad boy Bellamy Lovel's path of destruction. She's smart with a college degree but she's still fan girl crazy for the rock band Civilized Heathens. Evie knows despite all Bellamy's smiles and enthusiasm on the stage he's destined to end it all on one lonely night in a hotel room unless she can change his path. Bellamy isn't keen on having Evie as his personal assistant hired by his band mates to watch over him and keep him on schedule. However, there is something about the woman that sparks his interest despite his best to ignore her. When darkness threatens to consume him, he realizes she may be the only light that will chase the shadows away.

Where Are the Voices Coming From?, 2021-10-18 This collection of essays focuses on Canadian history and its legacies as represented in novels and films in English and French produced in Canada mainly in the 1980s and 1990s. The approach is both cross-cultural and interdisciplinary, aiming at articulating Canadian differences through a comparison of anglophone and francophone cultures illustrated by works treating some of the different groups which make up Canadian society: English Canadian, Québécois, Acadian, Native, and ethnic minorities. The emphasis is on the problematic representation of Canadianness which is closely bound up with constructions of history and its legacies: dispossession, criminality, nomadism, Gothicism, the Maritime. The English-French language difference is emblematic of Canadian difference. The two-part arrangement with one section on Literature and the other on Film sets up the pattern of relationships between the two forms of cultural representation that these essays explore. Essays in the Literature section are on single texts by such writers as Margaret Atwood, Tomson Highway, Ann Marie MacDonald, Anne Michaels, and Alice Munro. Gabrielle Roy, Anne Hébert, Antonine Maillet, Bernard Assiniwi, and Régine Robin. The Film section, with its mirror structure, both supplements and amplifies this dialogue, extending notions of Canadianness with its emphasis on voices from Quebec and Acadia traditionally othered in Canadian history. Filmmakers treated include Phillip Borsos, Atom Egoyan, Ted Kotcheff, Mort Ransen, and Vincent Ward. Denys Arcand, Gilles Carle, Alanis Obomsawin, Léa Pool, and Jacques Savoie.

Once Upon a Time There Was a Little Girl Marcella Hannon Shields Ph. D., 2008-07 Once Upon a Time There Was a Little Girl shares the moving stories of seven women who as young girls experienced the early loss of their mothers through death or physical or emotional abandonment. The women explore their personal traumas through their responses to seven fairy tales in which there was no nurturing maternal presence. Dr. Marcella Shields is a psychologist with over thirty years of experience who reveals the inspiring journeys of these women who eventually triumph over suffering and learn to rely on the bond they have formed with each other to help reclaim their passion for life. By exploring seven timeless fairy tales in which the heroine finds her way through the grief of abandonment, the women offer a deeper understanding of the significance of the mother-daughter bond and the devastating consequences for the daughter if this bond is ruptured early. The poignant life stories and dreams courageously offered by these women show how fairy tales allowed them to understand and refashion themselves and provide a source of encouragement and hope for other women who have experienced early maternal loss Fathers raising daughters without a consistent maternal presence will also find the reflections valuable Filmarama ,1975 The Anime Encyclopedia Jonathan Clements,Helen McCarthy,2006 An encyclopedia of Japanese animation and comics made since 1917 World Affairs ,2001 Includes the Annual report of the American Peace Society A Study Guide for Zadie Smith's "Swing Time" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Zadie Smith s Swing Time excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs Victory—Motorcycle Tales from Around the World Mark D. Chaucer and the Invention of Biblical Narrative Chad Schrock, 2024-10-17 Demonstrating how Chaucer uses the Bible in The Canterbury Tales as an authoritative literary source and model for his own literary production this book explores the ways in which the Bible was a key tool for Chaucer's self definition and innovation as an author Chad Schrock unravels Chaucer's Tales in the light of topics important to biblical reception in 14th century England authority textuality interpretation translation rephrasing and marginalia When the Canterbury Tales are summed up in this way they show the great extent to which Chaucer was drawing upon the Bible as a meta poetical resource for his own poetry its fictional tale tellers and characters its quotations allusions and images its plots its imaginative engagement with an audience of listeners and readers and its hidden intentions Schrock demonstrates that the Bible is a uniquely potent literary source for Chaucer because it combines infinite authority and plenitude with unprecedented freedom of interpretive invention As a world making text the Bible's authority includes the literary as subcategory but surpasses and contextualizes it which gives Chaucer's deferential biblical invention a different kind of freedom and safety Within Chaucer's tales a biblical image is often where a given narrative peaks and its plot comes clear but a biblical world also and without strain contains his biblical fictioneers and whatever they make from the Bible whether orthodoxy or heresy whether sin or worship
