Mode Of Production The Challenge Of Africa:

Mode of production ,1985 □□□□□□□□ ,1986 The Articulation of Modes of Production Harold Wolpe,2023-08-11
First published in 1980 The Articulation of Modes of Production is primarily concerned with the concept of articulation of modes of production and with the analysis of a number of different social formations utilizing this concept The emphasis is on the relationship between capitalist and other modes of production and on accounts of specific social formations which demonstrate the analytical power of the concept but at the same time reveal a number of as yet unresolved problems The introduction to the collection takes these problems at its starting point and through a discussion of the theoretical literature provides the basis for a more rigorous and complete analysis of social formations This book will be of interest to students of economics social policy and history Modes of Production in Africa Donald Crummey,Charles Cameron Stewart,1981-04
What form does social inequality take without classes How does the ecology of an area in particular the Zaire basin interact with social organization What forms of production existed in different areas What were the effects of mercantile capitalism on tribal production These questions and more are tackled with a view to increasing our understanding of industrial development in precolonial Africa Sustainability Challenges in Sub-Saharan Africa II Alexandros Gasparatos,Merle Naidoo,Abubakari Ahmed,Alice Karanja,Kensuke Fukushi,Osamu Saito,Kazuhiko Takeuchi,2020-09-05 The aim of this two volume book series is to highlight some of the most pervasive sustainability challenges that Sub Saharan Africa faces The two volumes contain 20 chapters that illustrate very diverse sustainability challenges throughout the continent adopting interdisciplinary and problem oriented research approaches and methods from the natural and the social sciences The very diverse case study chapters are put into perspective with chapters that introduce key sustainability challenges using a regional focus Through this multi scale and interdisciplinary approach the two volumes provide an authoritative source about the major sustainability challenges in the continent and how to mobilise such perspectives to develop appropriate solutions The two volumes have a uniquely broad focus that fills a major gap in the emerging Sustainability Science scholarship Parts I II highlight specific case studies on major sustainability challenges from Eastern and Southern Africa Part III synthesizes the main lessons learnt from the chapters in the two edited volumes Technology, Gender, and Power in Africa Patricia Stamp,International Development Research Centre (Canada),1990 Technology Gender and Power in Africa African Economic History ,1987 The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1997 Old Modes of Production and Capitalist Encroachment Wim Van Binsbergen,Peter Geschiere,2013-10-28 First published in 1985 This book is the result of a long series of meetings of the Amsterdam Work group for Marxist Anthropology extending over a number of years starting from 1977 It has some changes and expansions from the original Dutch version Africa: Facing Human Security Challenges in the 21st Century Mentan, Tatah,2014-05-12 Africa s dynamic security environment is characterized by great diversity from conventional challenges such as insurgencies resource and identity conflicts and post conflict stabilization to growing threats from piracy narcotics trafficking violent extremism and organized crime taking root in urban slums among others This precarious environment jeopardizes security at the societal community and individual levels In a globalized and interconnected world millions of people worldwide are affected by some form of human insecurity Infectious and parasitic diseases annually kill millions Internally displaced persons number millions including 5 million in Sudan alone In Zambia 1 million people in a population of 11 million are reported to be HIV positive a situation much worse in other countries Potable water crisis looms almost everywhere In this book Tatah Mentan points out the need to shift the focus away from a state centric and military strategic emphasis on security to an interdisciplinary and people centric approach that embraces notions like global citizenship empowerment and participation The primary elements of economic food health environment personal community and political security all comprise the broader understanding of human security in an intricately interconnected world

Reframing the Urban Challenge in Africa Ntombini Marrengane, Sylvia Croese, 2020-12-03 This book explores the changing dynamics and challenges behind the rapid expanse of Africa's urban population Africa's urban age is underway With the world's fastest growing urban population the continent is rapidly transforming from one that is largely rural to one that is largely urban Often facing limited budgets those tasked with managing African cities require empirical evidence on the nature of demands for infrastructure escalating environmental hazards and ever expanding informal settlements Drawing on the work of the African Urban Research Initiative this book brings together contributions from local researchers investigating key themes and challenges within their own contexts An important example of urban knowledge co production the book demonstrates the regional diversity that can be seen as the main feature of African urbanism with even well accepted concepts such as informality manifesting in markedly different ways from place to place Providing an important nuanced perspective on the heterogeneity of African cities and the challenges they face this book will be an important resource for researchers across development studies African studies and urban studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003008385> has been made available under a Creative Commons

Hopkins, 2020-09-24 This volume brings together important articles from the Cambridge historian A. G. Hopkins and reflect the enlargement and evolution of historical studies during the last half century The essays cover four of the principal historiographical developments of the period the extraordinary revolution that has led to the writing of non Western indigenous history the revitalization of new types of imperial history the now ubiquitous engagement with global history including a reinterpretation of American Empire and the current revival of economic history after several decades of neglect

Africa's Recovery in the 1990s Thandika Mkandawire, Rolph Van der Hoeven, 2016-07-27 While the design of adjustment policies in the latter part of the 1980s has generally shown greater attention to their impact on growth and social implications this book argues that several orthodox adjustment policies are still incongruent with long term development in Africa It goes on to discuss a development strategy which could lead to a much awaited economic recovery and improvement in social conditions in Africa in the 1990s drawing its conclusions from a general theoretical discussion and national case studies

Postharvest Technology and Commodity Marketing R. S. B. Ferris, 1998 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Goran Hyden, 2023-11-10 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Underdevelopment and an Uncaptured Peasantry explores the challenges of development and underdevelopment in Africa with a focus on Tanzania's experience during its early socialist years The book critiques the dominant ideologies of development whether capitalist or socialist as being rooted in Western industrial paradigms that often fail to address the realities of pre capitalist African societies It argues that the underdevelopment in Africa is not solely due to excessive penetration by global capitalism but also to capitalism's inability to dismantle the resilient pre capitalist structures in many rural societies The author highlights the role of the Tanzanian peasantry whose economic and social autonomy often resists the centralizing tendencies of modern development presenting them not as mere appendages to the global economy but as key players with their own modes of production and unique societal structures The book is grounded in over a decade of fieldwork and engagement with rural Tanzanian communities enriched by the author's fluency in Swahili and deep involvement in local life It argues for a more nuanced approach to studying African societies one that goes beyond Western assumptions and models By placing the peasant mode of production at the center of analysis the study challenges conventional wisdom and suggests that the primary development challenge in Africa lies not with multinational corporations but with understanding and working within the dynamics of the smallholder peasant economy The author also reflects on the limitations of conventional social science research and calls for greater involvement in the lived realities of the communities studied emphasizing the need for research methods that are sensitive to local contexts and values The book combines academic critique field observations and a focus on the epistemological biases of Western scholarship to present a compelling argument for rethinking development in Africa This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1980

The State, Identity, and the National Question in China and Japan Germaine A. Hoston, 2021-02-09 The first decades of the twentieth century witnessed an explosion of nationalist sentiment in East Asia as in Europe This comprehensive work explores how radical Chinese and Japanese thinkers committed to social change in this turbulent era addressed issues concerning national identity social revolution and the role of the national state in achieving socio economic development Focusing on the adaptation of anarchism and then Marxism Leninism to non European contexts Germaine Hoston shows how Chinese and Japanese theorists attempted to reconcile a relatively new appreciation for the nation state with their allegiance to a vision of internationalist socialist revolution culminating in stateless socialism Given the influence of Western experience on Marxism Chinese and Japanese theorists found the Marxian national question to be not merely one of whether the working man has no country but rather the much more fundamental issue of the relative value of Eastern and Western cultures Marxism argues Hoston thus placed native Marxists in tension with their own heritage and national identity The author traces efforts to resolve this tension throughout the first half of the twentieth century and concludes by examining how the tension persists as Chinese and Japanese dissidents seek identity affirming modernity in accordance with the Western democratic model
