Rethinking Art History Donald Preziosi, 1989-01-01 A general overview of the theoretical and institutional history of the discipline of art history Refuting the image of art history as a discipline in crisis Preziosi asserts that many of the dilemmas and contradictions of art history today are not new but can be traced back to problems surrounding the founding of the discipline its institutionalization and its academic expansion since the 1870s Donald Preziosi has written a timely and incisive study of the methods and assumptions of art history in the modern period As the book unfolds one realizes that art history was never as unitary and monolithic as the phrase the discipline of art history suggests but is in fact a complicated and highly contradictory range of practices whose disciplinary coherence may be more mythical than real This is a deliberately discomfiting book however for its clear sightedness rigor and wit it is a book to be welcomed by everyone concerned with the present condition and future direction of visual studies Norman Bryson Harvard University

An important and courageous book Rethinking Art History is a rigorous and original contribution to the current post structuralist and postmodernist debates in cultural studies here and abroad Steven Z Levine Bryn Mawr College Through this kind of reading of the discourse of art history Preziosi provides some acute analysis of the metaphors and stratagems which continue to discipline the discipline of art history subject areas of the arts and the social sciences as well as those of biology and medicine Semiotic inquiry into the conditions functions and structures of sign processes is older than any scientific discipline As a result it is able to make the underlying unity of these disciplines apparent once again without impairing their function as specializations Semiotics is above all research into the theoretical foundations of sign oriented disciplines that is it is General Semiotics Under the name of Zei chenlehre it has been pursued in the German speaking countries since the age of the Enlightenment During the nineteenth century the systematic inquiry into the functioning of signs was superseded by historical investigations into the origins of signs This opposition was overcome in the first half of the twentieth century by American Semiotics as well as by various directions of European structuralism working in the tradition of Semiology Present day General Semiotics builds on all these developments

Except-Africa Emery Roe, 2018-01-18 It is a commonplace that the problems of African rural development are becoming increasingly complex that is they have grown more numerous interrelated and varied This complexity has generated a multitude of development scenarios Such scenarios encourage decision making along rigid and narrow patterns that ignore the diversity of local situations and national cultures Among these is the doomsday scenario applied to every nation on the continent best captured in the phrase Everything works except in Africa Emery Roe argues that crisis scenarios generated by an expert usually non African elite are self serving and counterproductive Despite this they go largely unchallenged even when they fail to explain or predict Except Africa takes up the challenge of devising development scenarios that do justice to the continent's variegated reality The book begins by defining what the author means by a development narrative The subsequent chapters provide alternate scenarios to such dominant models Chapter 2 sketches four counter narratives to the tragedy of the common argument while chapter 3 constructs the most innovative challenge to conventional ways of thinking about Sub Saharan pastoralism in decades Chapter 4 develops an alternative scenario of expatriate advising in Africa while chapter 5 devises a counter narrative to the all too common views about government budgeting in Nigeria Kenya and Ghana Chapter 6 presents a case study and counter narrative from Zimbabwe of a complex local government reform The book concludes by moving beyond case material and specific situations to answer the most imperative question in African studies and rural development What would a politics of complexity look like in Africa if complexity were seriously engaged Contemporary African studies are dominated by narratives about power Yet in African rural development power interests are by no means always clear Development issues are frequently contingent and provisional Surviving the tangled fusion of narrative and reality requires a politics of complexity Except Africa will be an essential work in meeting that challenge
