Why Art Criticism? A Reader Julia Voss, Beate Söntgen, 2022-04-20 How is art criticism to be understood within an expanding artistic field A look at its history and its manifestations within globalized conditions shows the variety of the genre of the criteria and of the styles of writing This reader is an attempt to bring a diverse range of art critical voices and perspectives into conversation with each other with texts from the 18th century to the present The editors

Beate Stnngen and Julia Voss have invited colleagues from various geographical and intellectual backgrounds to present and discuss the art critics of their choice choosing one example from their respective bodies of work to comment upon How have these writers approached art criticism Which styles do they employ What makes them extraordinary What can we learn from their writings today and why is it important in its contemporary context BEATE S NTGEN 1963 is professor of art history at Leuphana University L neburg She studied art history philosophy and modern German literature in Marburg and Berlin She is director of the DFG Research Training Group Cultures of Critique Forms Media Effects and co director of the program PriMus Doctoral Studies in Museums JULIA VOSS 1974 is an honorary professor at Leuphana University L neburg She studied art history modern German literature and philosophy in Berlin and London She is herself an art critic and journalist and was deputy head of the arts section of the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung

The State of Art Criticism James Elkins, Michael Newman, 2007-11-13 Art criticism is spurned by universities but widely produced and read It is seldom theorized and its history has hardly been investigated The State of Art Criticism presents an international conversation among art historians and critics that considers the relation between criticism and art history and poses the question of whether criticism may become a university subject Contributors include Dave Hickey James Panero Stephen Melville Lynne Cook Michael Newman Whitney Davis Irit Rogoff Guy Brett and Boris Groys

Exhibiting Gender Sarah Hyde, 1997 Established in the belief that imperialism as a cultural phenomenon had as significant an effect on the dominant as it did on the subordinate societies the Studies in Imperialism series seeks to develop the new socio cultural approach which has emerged through cross disciplinary work on popular culture media studies art history the study of education and religion sports history and children s literature The cultural emphasis embraces studies of migration and race while the older political and constitutional economic and military concerns are never far away It incorporates comparative work on European and American empire building with the chronological focus primarily though not exclusively on the 19th and 20th centuries when these cultural exchanges were most powerfully at work This work explores the sexual attitudes and activities of those who ran the British Empire The study explains the pervasive importance of sexuality in the Victorian Empire both for individuals and as a general dynamic in the working of the system Among the topics included in the book are prostitution the manners and mores of missionaries and aspects of race in sexual behaviour

Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women s studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field. A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women's studies in the last decades of the 20th century. The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative, review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off, this is the definitive guide to the literature of women's studies. It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field.

New Museum Theory and Practice Janet Marstine, 2008-04-15 New Museum Theory and Practice is an original collection of essays with a unique focus: the contested politics and ideologies of museum exhibition. Contains 12 original essays that contribute to the field while creating a collective whole for course use. Discusses theory through vivid examples and historical overviews. Offers guidance on how to put theory into practice. Covers a range of museums around the world from art to history, anthropology to music, as well as historic houses, cultural centres, virtual sites, and commercial displays that use the conventions of the museum. Authors come from the UK, Canada, the US, and Australia and from a variety of fields that inform cultural studies.

Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors, sample entries, and more, visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website. Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women's issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory, the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium. In over 900 signed A-Z entries from US and Europe, Asia, the Americas, Oceania, and the Middle East, the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women's studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women-related subjects.

Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson, 2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art, the long-anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked. Completely revised, retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition, with all other material being new inclusions. Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America, Europe, and Australasia, juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics. Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches, lesbian and queer theory, and postmodernism to education and aesthetics. Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze,2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume Great Art Critics (1750-2000) J. Pedro Lorente,2020-04-01 The art world has become a point of contention within a range of debates and yet strangely enough while art criticism has been discussed at length very little is said about art critics Following in the footsteps of Lionello Venturi's History of Art Criticism in the current volume Lorente provides an updated reassessment of the great art critics from the Enlightenment down to the turn of the millennium Conceived as a didactic handbook with a recommended bibliography at the end of each chapter this concise work tells the history of a profession in permanent crisis while also paying homage to its most influential practitioners in different cultural contexts Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art Kristine Stiles,1996 Enth u a S 74 Concrete art 1936 49 Max Bill S 74 77 The mathematical approach in contemporary art 1949 Max Bill S 301 304 Dieter Roth

Counter Print Victoria Horne,2025-09-09 The history of contemporary art is also a history of its newsletters manifestos magazines pamphlets and journals Those periodical publications do not simply communicate or record ideas but have worked in exciting ways to shape art's practices histories and communities As a new generation of artists activists and scholars seek to uncover the histories of alternative publishing and artistic networks this book gathers original archival discoveries while offering methodologies for studying and thinking with those artefacts As the first essay collection to focus on the periodical art press and the ways we study it Counter Print offers readers an alternative route into the past fifty years of contemporary art one that is defiantly collaborative border crossing and disruptive A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant,2022-08-29 In A Time of One's Own Catherine Grant examines how contemporary feminist artists are turning to broad histories of feminism ranging from political organizing and artworks from the 1970s to queer art and activism in the 1990s Exploring artworks from 2002 to 2017 by artists including Sharon Hayes Mary Kelly Allyson Mitchell Deirdre Logue Lubaina Himid Pauline Boudry and Renate Lorenz Grant maps a revival of feminism that takes up the creative and political implications of forging feminist communities across time and space Grant characterizes these artists' engagement with feminism as a fan-ish autodidactic and collective form of learning from history This fandom of feminism allows artists to build relationships with previous feminist ideas artworks and communities that reject a generational model and embrace aspects of feminism that might be seen as embarrassing queer or anachronistic Accounting for the growing interest in feminist art politics and ideas across generations Grant demonstrates that for many contemporary feminist artists the present moment can only be understood through an embodied engagement with history in which feminist pasts are reinhabited and reimagined
