The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4,000 contemporary poets world wide, this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets, talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents: Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners, organizations, magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate, Oxford University professors of poetry, poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature, winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes. The Long Reach Richard Eberhart,1984. Complete Poems Claude McKay,2004-01-29. Containing more than three hundred poems including nearly a hundred previously unpublished works, this unique collection showcases the intellectual range of Claude McKay. 1889-1948, the Jamaican born poet and novelist whose life and work were marked by restless travel and steadfast social protest. McKay's first poems were composed in rural Jamaican creole and launched his lifelong commitment to representing everyday black culture from the bottom up. Migrating to New York, he reinvigorated the English sonnet and helped spark the Harlem Renaissance with poems such as If We Must Die. After coming under scrutiny for his communism, he traveled throughout Europe and North Africa for twelve years and returned to Harlem in 1934, having denounced Stalin's Soviet Union. By then, McKay's pristine violent sonnets were giving way to confessional lyrics informed by his newfound Catholicism. McKay's verse eludes easy definition, yet this complete anthology, vividly introduced and carefully annotated by William J. Maxwell, acquaints readers with the full transnational evolution of a major voice in twentieth century poetry.

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003. Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21. The Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems, along with many articles devoted to topics, schools or periods of American verse in the century. Entries fall into three main categories: poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career; entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon; and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production, school, thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States. Contemporary Poets Tracy Chevalier,1991. Contains biographical entries, a list of separately published books and an essay on each poet. Maine Poems Richard Eberhart,1989. Centering on his summers spent in Maine, Richard Eberhart's new collection responds to the question: Are you going to Maine asked in the poem entitled Going to Maine His premise that Going to Maine is a state of mind reverberates throughout the collection Whether describing an old pine tree facing Penobscot Bay wild swans on Inchiquin Lake or a loon s cry Eberhart once again demonstrates those qualities that have made him one of America s most honored poets
