personal pain versus God's goodness this book will be a blessing to you When events seem painful or evil you must know and trust that God still has a plan This book will help you be assured that He is still in control and the confidence and peace that comes with that realization will become the tool to help you face the storms life brings your way Four Views on Heaven Zondervan, 2022-01-18 Discover and understand the different Christian views of what heaven will be like Christians from a variety of denominations and traditions are in middle of an important conversation about the final destiny of the saved Scholars such as N T Wright and J Richard Middleton have pushed back against the traditional view of heaven and now some Christians are pushing back against them for fear that talk about the earthiness of our final hope distracts our attention from Jesus In the familiar Counterpoints format Four Views on Heaven brings together a well rounded discussion and highlights similarities and differences of the current views on heaven Each author presents their strongest biblical case for their position followed by responses and a rejoinder that model a respectful tone Positions and contributors include Traditional Heaven our destiny is to leave earth and live forever in heaven where we will rest worship and serve God John S Feinberg Restored Earth emphasizes that the saved will live forever with Jesus on this restored planet enjoying ordinary human activities in our redeemed state J Richard Middleton Heavenly Earth a balanced view that seeks to highlight both the strengths and weaknesses of the heavenly and earthly views Michael Allen Roman Catholic Beatific Vision stresses the intellectual component of salvation though it encompasses the whole of human experience of joy happiness coming from seeing God finally face to face Peter Kreeft The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

A Jewish Apocalyptic Framework of Eschatology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Jihye Lee, 2021-11-18 In contrast to scholarly belief that the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews envisions the transcendent heavenly world as the eschatological inheritance of God's people Jihye Lee argues that a version of an Urzeit Endzeit eschatological framework as observed in some Jewish apocalyptic texts provides a plausible background against which the arguments of Hebrews are most comprehensively explained Instead of transcendence to the heavenly world that will come after the destruction of the shakable creation Lee suggests the possibility of a more dualistic new world By first defining Urzeit Endzeit eschatology Lee is then able to explore its place in both pre and post 70 CE Second Temple Judaism In examining Enoch the Qumran Texts Jubilees the Liber Antiquitatum Biblicarum 4 Ezra and 2 Baruch and finally the Book of Revelation Lee compares a multitude of eschatological visions and the different depictions of the transformation of the world judgement and the new world to come Bringing these texts together to analyse the issue of God's Rest in Hebrews and the nature of the Unshakable Kingdom Lee concludes that Hebrews envisions the kingdom as consisting of both the revealed heavenly world and the renewed creation as the eschatological venue of God's dwelling place with his people
