Solving America's Energy Crisis Kirkpatrick Sale, James Ridgeway, Joseph Persky, Steve Cummings, James Branscome, John Gaventa, Joseph Huges, 1973-09-01 There are some remarkable parallels between the Watergate scandals and the energy crisis the two biggest front page stories in recent months Both are the product of a politics of fear and intimidation a use of power to obscure public issues with scare words like black outs and Black Panthers while stealing Americans blind In the name of law and order the Watergate tricksters nearly stole the government In the name of supply and demand the energy companies would have us finance their attempt to further monopolize the world s energy resources But more of us are seeing through these kinds of tricks On a national level perhaps television has produced a more sophisticated audience one capable of discerning a second rate used car salesman or a fast buck hoax in an instant That s certainly ironic considering the way TV has become the media for presidential campaigning and the oil companies good guy apologies Of course Southerners should have a slight edge in spotting a fraud After all we ve had decades of demagogues and statehouse gangs telling us what was best for the little people Not that we ve had a monopoly on such corruption Nationally the worst enemies of democracy and free enterprise consistently prove to be those who claim to be those systems protectors Still the South has a special relation to these latest crises And that s what this issue of our journal is all about There is increasing evidence that the cronies and the cash that made Watergate a Nixon policy came from the southern USA Kirkpatrick Sale explores this thought in his analysis of the emerging political clout of what he calls the southern rim Working Mother ,2002-03 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Men's Health ,2008-01 Men s Health magazine contains daily tips and articles on fitness nutrition relationships sex career and lifestyle Energy Conservation Initiatives United States.
