New Library Buildings Of The World:

Building Libraries for the 21st Century T.D. Webb,2004-08-25 Despite calls for electronic virtual digital libraries without walls the walled variety are still being built some of them massive This book explores the reasons for this contradiction by examining several notable new library facilities around the world to see how modern expectations for libraries are being translated into concrete and steel More and more libraries are looking at change not as a dreaded hazard but as an opportunity that can itself be seized to strengthen the library in the areas of mission technologies facilities funding and organizational structure Thirteen libraries are discussed by a librarian or administrator who worked on the project Each author writes about the design and building concerns that were particularly relevant to that library philosophy political issues or any other concerns that affected planning building and services in the new facility Introductory and concluding chapters identify underlying values and themes tying everything together The unique combinations of issues constraints and opportunities show how libraries are planning to fit into the approaching era of virtual information delivery Library Buildings in a Changing Environment Marie-Françoise Bisbrouck,2014-02-07 No detailed description available for Library Buildings in a Changing Environment 图书馆建筑 Jianzhong Wu,2003 Fotografier af 100 biblioteksbygninger fra 39 lande

International Dictionary of Library Histories David H. Stam, 2001-11. Following the format of Fitzroy Dearborn's highly successful International Dictionary of Historic Places and International Dictionary of University Histories, the International Dictionary of Library Histories provides basic information for each institution, location, and holdings, followed by an extensive 1,000-5,000 word essay on its history, as well as a Further Reading list. In addition, the dictionary includes introductory articles on the history of various types of libraries and a library history in various regions of the world. The dictionary profiles more than 200 institutions from around the world, including the world's most important research libraries and other libraries with globally or regionally notable collections, innovative traditions, and significant and interesting histories. The essays take advantage of the growing scholarship of library history to provide insightful overviews of each institution, including not only the traditional values of these libraries but their innovations as well such as developments in automated systems and electronic delivery The profiles will emphasize the unique materials of research in these institutions archives manuscripts personal and institutional papers The introductory articles on types of libraries include topics ranging from theological libraries to prison libraries from the ancient to the digital An international team of more than 200 leading scholars in the field have contributed essays to the project
