NGOization Aziz Choudry, Dip Kapoor, 2013-07-11 The growth and spread of non governmental organizations NGOs at local and international levels has attracted considerable interest and attention from policy makers development practitioners academics and activists around the world But how has this phenomenon impacted on struggles for social and environmental justice How has it challenged or reinforced the forces of capitalism and colonialism And what political economic social and cultural interests does this serve NGOization the professionalization and institutionalization of social action has long been a hotly contested issue in grassroots social movements and communities of resistance This book pulls together for the first time unique perspectives of social struggles and critically engaged scholars from a wide range of geographical and political contexts to offer insights into the tensions and challenges of the NGO model while considering the feasibility of alternatives

New Living in Old Houses Frank Werner, 1982 To restore to renovate or to remodel this is a choice that faces many owners and potential owners of older structures In the introduction to this illuminating book the author points out that the major part of the activity in this field is undertaken in the interests of restoration but that the line dividing the three categories is often blurred His thirty seven case histories from the United States and Europe show in great detail the sensitive and creative fashion in which architects and architectural firms have tackled the problem Old-House Journal, 2004-05 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice Renovate an Old House? Gerald E. Sherwood, 1976 Hearings United States. Congress. Joint Committee ..., 1947 House Life Donna Birdwell-Pheasant, Denise

Lawrence-Züniga, 2020-06-04 This book which fills a gap on the materiality of lived relations examines households within the context of their immediate physical surroundings of home and shows how human interactions are reflected in built forms Houses are dynamic participants in family life in many ways They often pre date the origins and outlast the life spans of their inhabitants but they can exert a powerful influence on the organization of behaviors and the values of family members as well as on the forms and flows of family life across the generations Constituting wealth investment security and inheritance they are an objective in and of themselves in many domestic strategies Drawing on developments within anthropology archaeology architecture and social history the authors demonstrate through detailed case studies how household or family relations can usefully be mined to re situate social theory in both space and time Space boundaries family cycles historic changes migration patterns ethnicity memory and gender are all interrogated for the light they shed on how people interact with the physical world around them and what this means culturally and symbolically Europe is an especially rich focus for this kind of analysis because it is distinguished by its long well documented history and a recent period of intense change Hugh

Newell Jacobsen, Architect Hugh Newell Jacobsen, 2003 This book documents the 30 year collaboration of one of America's finest architects and a great architectural photographer Hugh Newell Jacobsen's projects have earned over 80 design awards while Robert Lautman's photographs of Jacobsen's work have been published widely
