Tribal People of Central India: Problems and Prospects Dr. B.M. Mukherjee & Dr. Farhad Mollick, 2022-01-22 This book contains 26 papers presented at the National Seminar on Tribal People of Central India Problems and Prospects organized by the Department of Anthropology Mahatma Gandhi Antarrashtriya Hindi Vishwavidyalaya in collaboration with Anthropologic Survey of India under the convenorship of Dr Farhad Mollick The papers are arranged into four sections in such a way that they bring out a clear picture of the status of tribal communities in Central India The tribes in India constitute the weaker section of the population from ecological economic and educational angles Illiteracy poverty ill health and malnutrition continue to be higher among the scheduled tribes than any other section of the population Despite the constitutional provision and various legal protections the problem of land alienation has multiplied There are other problems such as indebtedness exploitation loss of natural resources and indigenous knowledge system The provision of law under different Acts for safeguarding their interest and maintaining their identity remains largely unimplemented The issues related to tribal policy socio cultural context tribal health and tribal economy have been discussed in the book from the viewpoints of anthropologists and other specialists working on tribal communities Exploring Church Growth Wilbert R. Shenk, 2010-08-01 During the past twenty years the phenomenon of church growth especially as it has been known under the dynamic leadership of Donald McGavran and the School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary has resulted in an impressive array of books articles reports and theses While freely acknowledging their debut to the church growth school the contributors to this volume wish to explore further the premises principles and goals of church growth Firmly convinced that church growth is more than empirical data and effective methods and that there is nothing approaching a complete book of church growth they aim not simply to offer definitive answers but rather to open up fresh lines of inquiry historical experiential methodological and theological Thus while interacting with previous studies the authors view their work as a constructive contribution to the search for a more adequate understanding of church growth patterns Contributors to this volume include Alfred C Krass Harvie M Conn Orlando E Costas John H Yoder Harry R Boer and C Ren Padilla Capricious Worlds John Chr Knudsen, 2005 Capricious Worlds covers a period of 20 years of exile Through the life journeys of Vietnamese refugees the book presents a world rich in experience and wisdom where the will to survive is complemented by the skills to do so Individuals must learn to conquer systems that transform human beings into numbers and men women and children into de personalized figures The transformations render an unsettling peace that refugees struggle against inspired by a search for recognition a search not only for what is lost but also for what might yet be The book is about refugees en route to and in Norway It also speaks to the challenges of being exiled in general a reality for 40 million refugees and internally displaced persons worldwide Population Geography Mohammad Izhar Hassan, 2020-04-28 This book studies the origins and development of population geography as a discipline It explores the key concepts tools and statistical and demographic techniques that are widely employed in the analysis of population The chapters in this book Provide a comprehensive geographical account of population attributes in the world with a particular focus on India Study the three major components of population change fertility mortality and migration that have remained somewhat neglected in the study of human geography so far Examine the salient social demographic and economic characteristics of population along with topics such as size distribution and growth of population Discuss major population theories policies and population development environment interrelations thus marking a significant departure from the traditional pattern oriented approach Well supplemented with figures maps and tables this key text will be an indispensable read for students researchers and teachers of human geography demography anthropology sociology economics and population studies

Mediaeval Manichaeen Book Art Zsuzsanna Gulácsi,2005-09-01 Mediaeval Manichean Book Art focuses on a corpus of c one hundred fragments of exquisitely illuminated manuscripts that were produced under the patronage of the Turkic speaking Uygurs in the Turfan region of East Central Asia between the 8th and 11th centuries CE and used in service of the local Manichaeen church By applying a codicological approach to the analysis of these sources this study casts light onto a lost episode of Central Asian art history and religious book culture Each of the five chapters in this book accomplishes a well defined goal The first justifies the formation of the corpus The second examines its dating on the basis of scientific and historical evidence Chapter three assesses the artistry of their bookmakers scribes and illuminators The fourth documents the patterns of page layout preserved on the fragments The final chapter analyses the contextual relationship of their painted and written contents Mediaeval Manichaeen Book Art represents a pioneer study in its subject research methodology and illustrations It extracts codicological and art historical data from torn remains of lavishly decorated Middle Persian Sogdian and Uygur language manuscripts in codex scroll and palm leaf formats Through detailed analyses and carefully argued interpretations aided by precise computer drawings the author introduces an important group of primary sources for future comparative research in Central Asian art mediaeval book illumination and Manichaeen studies

Robbing Peter to Pay Paul F. F. Powell,2009-09-24 Robbing Peter to Pay Paul looks at how Jesus teachings were supplanted by St Paul s doctrines Jesus is presented to the reader of the New Testament with two different personalities He is first described as a Jewish Rabbi recognized by His followers as the promised Hebrew Messiah His second personality stripped of its Jewish ness is somewhat like that of a Greco Roman god His Disciples were Hebrew in the first instance and in the second they were mostly Greco Roman Saint Paul authored most of the Greco Roman tenets in the New Testament of course He became a citizen of Rome as Saul of Tarsus but is now known as Saint Paul For centuries theologians seem to have preferred Paul s doctrines to the teachings of Jesus and have shaped a message over the years that our faith must be placed in Jesus death not in His life As Christianity took shape Paul battled to get his Greco Roman dogma accepted Those persons supporting Paul soon developed a strategy to accomplish that feat Belittling the Disciples was one approach to the problem it appears This is especially true of Peter in some of Paul's Galatians passages

The Land of Heart's Delight Michael Layland, 2013 Just how and why did Vancouver Island get onto the map How was knowledge of our immediate geography acquired and recorded With 130 maps dating between 1593 and 1915 this cartographic history tells the story of how Vancouver Island and the surrounding area came to be mapped The book shows local cartographic milestones marking progress in our knowledge through the island's rich although comparatively short recorded history However the maps by themselves and without context cannot tell the whole story The accompanying text reveals the motives constraints agendas and intrigues that underpin their making Publisher's description

Islam compiled from Wikipedia entries and published by Dr Googelberg,

The Idea of Justice in Literature Hiroshi Kabashima, Shing-I Liu, Christoph Luetge, Aurelio de Prada García, 2018-05-07 The theme arises from the legal academic movement Law and Literature This newly developed field should aim at two major goals first to investigate the meaning of law in a social context by questioning how the characters appearing in literary works understand and behave themselves to the law law in literature and second to find out a theoretical solution of the methodological question whether and to what extent the legal text can be interpreted objectively in comparison with the question how literary works should be interpreted law as literature The subject of justice and injustice has been covered not only in treatises of law and philosophy but also in many works of literature On the one hand poets and writers have been outraged at the social conditions of their time On the other hand some of them have also contributed fundamental reflections on the idea of justice itself
