recent German history a documentary for example about Richard Wagner's daughter in law who was a close friend of Hitler The Confessions of Winifred Wagner 1975 But especially historical is his trilogy covering one hundred years of Germany's past including most famously Hitler A Film from Germany also known as Our Hitler 1977 In this film and other works Syberberg unites fictional narrative and documentary footage in a style that is at once cinematic and theatrical mystical and magical Hans Jürgen Syberberg the Film Director as Critical Thinker Essays and Interviews is the first edited book in English devoted to this director's work and includes his most important English language interviews as well as some of the best English language essays on his work In sum this book is a significant contribution not only to the study of Syberberg's oeuvre but also to the study of German history and politics in the second half of the twentieth century Positioning Art Cinema Geoff King, 2019-01-24 Art cinema occupies a space in the film landscape that is accorded a particular kind of value From films that claim the status of harsh realism to others which embody aspects of the tradition of modernism or the poetic art cinema encompasses a variety of work from across the globe But how is art cinema positioned in the film marketplace or by critics and in academic analysis Exactly what kinds of cultural value are attributed to films of this type and how can this be explained This book offers a unique analysis of how such processes work including the broader cultural basis of the appeal of art cinema to particular audiences Geoff King argues that there is no single definition of art cinema but a number of distinct and recurrent tendencies are identified At one end of the spectrum are films accorded the most heavyweight status offering the greatest challenges to viewers Others mix aspects of art cinema with more accessible dimensions such as uses of popular genre frameworks and exploitation elements involving explicit sex and violence Including case studies of key figures such as Michael Haneke Pedro Almodóvar and Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne this is a crucial contribution to understanding both art cinema itself and the discourses through which its value is established Film Violence Jim Kendrick, 2010-04-26 A concise and accessible introduction to the role of violence from the silent era to the present this volume illustrates the breadth and depth of screen bloodshed in historical cultural and industrial contexts After considering problems of definition the book offers a systematic history of film violence and examines three of the most popular violent genres western horror and action It concludes with a case study on the centrality of film violence to the directors of the New American Cinema such as Francis Ford Coppola Martin Scorsese and Steven Spielberg offering a strong example of how violence history ideology and genre are deeply intertwined Postmodernism and Film Catherine Constable, 2015-06-30 This volume focuses on postmodern film aesthetics and contemporary challenges to the aesthetic paradigms dominating analyses of Hollywood cinema It explores conceptions of the classical modernist post classical new Hollywood and their construction as linear history of style in which postmodernism forms a debatable final act This history is challenged by using Jean François Lyotard's non linear conception of postmodernism in order to view postmodern aesthetics as a paradigm that can occur across the history of Hollywood This study also explores nihilistic theorists of the postmodern Jean Baudrillard and Frederic Jameson and affirmative theorists notably Linda Hutcheon charting the ways in which the latter provide the means to conceptualize nuanced and positive variants of postmodern aesthetics and deploying them in the analysis of Hollywood films including Bombshell Sherlock Junior and Kill Bill

Spectatorship Michele Aaron, 2007 Michele Aaron cuts a lucid path through the dense undergrowth of the debate on spectatorship She revisits the classics of Hollywood and explores films from beyond the mainstream such as Dogme 95 to explore the nature of seeing and spectatorship

The Road Movie Neil Archer, 2016-01-12 Though often seen as one of America's native cinematic genres the road movie has lent itself to diverse international contexts and inspired a host of filmmakers As analyzed in this study from its most familiar origins in Hollywood the road movie has become a global film practice whether as a vehicle for exploring the relationship between various national contexts and American cinema as a means of narrating different national and continental histories or as a form of individual filmmaking expression Beginning with key films from Depression era Hollywood and the New Hollywood of the late 1960s and then considering its wider effect on world cinemas this volume maps the development and adaptability of an enduring genre studying iconic films along the way emancipation Several acculturation seeking Jewish artists and intellectuals however endeavored to conceive a notion of Heimat that would rather substantiate their belonging This book considers Jewish filmmakers contribution to this endeavor It shows how they devised the landscapes of the German Homeland as Jews namely as acculturated outsiders within Through appropriation of generic Heimat imagery the films discussed in the book integrate criticism of national chauvinism into German mainstream culture from World War One to the Cold War Consequently these Jewish filmmakers anticipated the anti Heimat film of the ensuing decades and functioned as an uncredited inspiration for the critical New German Cinema
