The New House at the Chalet School Elinor Mary Brent-Dyer, 2008-01-01 The New House at the Chalet School ; Three Go to the Chalet School ; Mary-Lou at the Chalet School Elinor Mary Brent-Dyer, 1983-01-01 A Rebel at the Chalet School ; The New House at the Chalet School Elinor Mary Brent-Dyer, 1996 The Chalet School Books and the Twentieth Century Miles Booy, 2025-06-17 The first full length study of this beloved children's series The Chalet School in the Twentieth Century moves beyond the largely generic analysis within which it has previously been discussed Published between 1925 and 1970 the series moves from European reconciliation after the Great War through a second global conflict to a post war world increasingly defined by increased secularity and emerging consumerism Reproducing cover illustrations Miles Booy's book examines both those issues which author Elinor M Brent Dyer consciously explored such as the exceptional The Chalet School in Exile which she sought to explain the Nazi occupation of Austria to her young readers and those aspects of the text which must be read symptomatically This is a book which will engage students with historical and cultural interests beyond children's literature With barely a midnight feast in sight but much anxiety about social change it's a familiar genre but not as you think you know it Hurry up new girls class is about to begin British and American School Stories, 1910-1960 Nancy G. Rosoff, Stephanie Spencer, 2019-02-25 This book examines school and college fiction for girls in Britain and the United States written in the first half of the twentieth century to explore the formation and ideologies of feminine identity Nancy G Rosoff and Stephanie Spencer develop a transnational framework that recognises how both constructed and essential femininities transcend national boundaries The book discusses the significance and performance of female friendship across time and place which is central to the development of the genre and how it functioned as an important means of informal education Stories by Jessie Graham Flower Pauline Lester Alice Ross Colver Elinor Brent Dyer and Dorita Fairlie Bruce are set within their historical context and then used to explore aspects of sociability authority responsibility domesticity and possibility The distinctiveness of this book stems from the historical analysis of these sources which have so far primarily been treated by literary scholars within their national context Winner of the History of Education Society Anne Bloomfield Prize for the best book on history of education published in English 2017 19 The New House at the Chalet School Elinor M. Brent-Dyer, 2023-07-25 Elinor M Brent Dyer was born Gladys Eleanor May Dyer on April 6 1894 in South Shields in the northeast of England She wrote over a hundred books of children's literature during her life From lower middle class roots she went to a small private school and became a teacher after attending the City of Leeds Training College As a teacher she worked at both public and private schools and even as a governess She had an interest in the theater and her first book Gerry Goes to School the first in her La Rochelle series was written in 1922 for the child actress Hazel Bainbridge About this time inspired by a vacation to the Austrian Alps she wrote The School at the Chalet in 1923 the first in her Chalet School series Brent Dyer continued to teach and tried rather unsuccessfully to run her own school from 1938 to

British Children's Fiction in the Second World War Owen Dudley Edwards, 2007-08-01 What children read in the Second World War had an immense effect on how they came of age as they faced the new world This time was unique for British children parental controls were often relaxed if not absent and the radio and reading assumed greater significance for most children than they had in the more structured past or were to do in the more crowded future Owen Dudley Edwards discusses reading children s radio comics films and book related play activity in relation to value systems the child s perspective versus the adult s perspective the development of sophistication retention and loss of pre war attitudes and their post war fate British literature is placed in a wider context through a consideration of what British writing reached the USA and vice versa and also through an exploration of wartime Europe as it was shown to British children Questions of leadership authority individualism community conformity urban rural division ageism class race and gender awareness are explored In this incredibly broad ranging book covering over 100 writers Owen Dudley Edwards looks at the literary inheritance when the war broke out and asks whether children s literary diet was altered in the war temporarily or permanently Concerned with the effects of the war as a whole on what children could read during the war and what they made of it he reveals the implications of this for the world they would come to inhabit
