Following Jesus in a Fallen World Robert M. Solomon, 2020

Rainbows for the Fallen World Calvin Seerveld, Pentecostal Aesthetics Steven Felix, 2015-02-04 Pentecostals have not sufficiently worked out a distinctively Pentecostal philosophy of art and aesthetics In Pentecostal Aesthetics Theological Reflections in a Pentecostal Philosophy of Art and Aesthetics with a foreword by Amos Yong Steven Felix J ger corrects this by reflecting theologically on art and aesthetics from a global Pentecostal perspective particularly through a pneumatic Pentecostal lens Felix J ger contends that a Pentecostal philosophy of art and aesthetics must comply with the global experiential and pneumatocentric nature of the Pentecostal movement Such a philosophy can be ontologically grounded in a relativistic theory of art Theological reflections concerning the nature and purpose of art must then be sensitive to the ontological foundations secured thereof In this fashion Pentecostals can gain ample insight about the Spirit's work in today's contemporary artworld

Liturgical Semiotics from Below Kevin O. Olds, 2023-12-13 How do we find meaning in worship How might we worship more meaningfully These questions invite us into a field of study called liturgical semiotics This book takes a deep dive into this arena using the metaphor of breathing as a vehicle for the journey It is about getting back to what is at the core of the Christian identity namely worship and exploring how to find and make meaning in it In doing so we will find out not only more about our worship but about ourselves Liturgical semiotics is not only about the liturgical event but about the semiotician as well Along the way using BREATHE GASP and RASP as guides we will read the signs of our worship connect the dots of the stories it tells and uncover new meanings We will also find ways to make our worship more evocative and more resonant with the current culture Take a deep breath and dive in

Where Mortals Dwell Craig G. Bartholomew, 2011-09-01 Place is fundamental to human existence However we have lost the very human sense of place in today's postmodern and globalized world Craig Bartholomew a noted Old Testament scholar and the coauthor of two popular texts on the biblical narrative provides a biblical theological and philosophical grounding for place in our rootless culture He illuminates the importance of place throughout the biblical canon in the Christian tradition and in the contours of contemporary thought Bartholomew encourages readers to recover a sense of place and articulates a hopeful Christian vision of placemaking in today's world Anyone interested in place and related environmental themes including readers of Wendell Berry will enjoy this compelling book the arts The visual arts music and literature are considered as well as the theological meaning and place of the arts in a fallen world redeemed by Christ

A Supreme Love William Edgar, 2022-07-26 Theologian and jazz pianist William Edgar places jazz within the context of the African American experience and explores the work of musicians like Miles Davis and Ella Fitzgerald arguing that jazz which moves from deep lament to inextinguishable joy deeply resonates with the hope that is ultimately found in the good news of Jesus Christ

The Message of Genesis 1-11 David J. Atkinson, 2022-01-04 Where do we come from What is our purpose In this BST commentary David Atkinson explores how the first eleven chapters of Genesis serve as an overture to the rest of the Bible With vivid insight Atkinson illuminates how the meaning of Genesis is still resonant today helping us understand both the greatness and the tragic flaw inherent in human beings

Glimpses of the New Creation W. David O. Taylor, Jeremy Begbie, 2019-09-03 How do the arts in worship form individuals and communities Every choice of art in worship opens up and closes down possibilities for the formation of our humanity Every practice of music every decision about language every use of our bodies every approach to visual media or church buildings forms our desires shapes our imaginations habituates our emotional instincts and reconfigures our identity as Christians in contextually meaningful ways generating thereby a sense of the triune God and of our place in the world Glimpses of the New Creation argues that the arts form us in worship by bringing us into intentional and intensive participation in the aesthetic aspect of our humanity that is our physical emotional imaginative and metaphorical capacities In so doing they invite the people of God to be conformed to Christ and to participate in the praise of Christ and in the praise of creation which by the Spirit's power raises its peculiar voice to the Father in heaven for the sake of the world that God so loves

The Aesthetics of Discipleship Adrian Coates, 2021-09-30 Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play friendship and cultural formation In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer the work of Iain McGilchrist Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic ethical and religious existence Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self Mature aesthetic existence however anchored in love for God plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live

Improvising Church Mark Glanville, 2024-02-13 Though the post Christian cultural turn can be disconcerting it is also a uniquely exciting time to reimagine churches Building on the dynamic traditions of jazz music and Christian community biblical scholar and jazz musician Mark Glanville unfolds a biblical practical and inventive vision for building the churches we long for Marking the Church Greg Peters, Matt Jenson, 2016-12-09 More than one person has joked over the years that Evangelical believers do not have an ecclesiology In one sense that is absurd Evangelical churches especially if you include Pentecostals in that group are some of the fastest growing most vibrant churches in the world Evangelicals are proclaiming the gospel praising the Lord reading the Bible and loving the poor But there is a case to be made that the Evangelical devotion to the mission of the church has left Evangelicals with little time to reflect on the church itself In this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the Evangelical Theological Society the authors take time to reflect on the nature of the church in an Evangelical context asking after the way in which it is one holy catholic and apostolic The Blackwell Companion to Protestantism Alister E. Henderson, Marleen Hengelaar-Rookmaaker, 2024-01-02 The Neo Calvinist tradition is well equipped to offer wisdom on the arts to the whole body of Christ Edited by art scholar Roger Henderson and Marleen Hengelaar Rookmaaker daughter of Hans Rookmaaker this volume brings together history philosophy and theology to consider the relationship between the arts and the Neo

Calvinist tradition The Artistic Vision Alex Sosler, Gary Ball, 2024-07-25 When you look at the world what do you see As an artist your creativity stems from your vision The problem in the modern world is how often one's imagination is fragmented and reduced between worship and work the body and soul the material and the spiritual Written to practicing artists and those who pastor them The Artistic Vision encourages artists who long for a greater sense of purpose and a greater sense of wholeness proposing that seeing the material world as a shadow of spiritual realities will lead them toward an expression that joins faith and practice Drawing from the Oxford Movement and artistic examples like Christina Rossetti and Flannery O'Connor Ball and Sosler present a sacramental way of seeing the world the invisible through the visible the spiritual through the material the divine through creation Interspersed with practical vignettes from artists and pastoral reflection The Artistic Vision helps artists regain an enchanted mysterious and reverent vision of life Artists neither have to check their faith at the studio door nor produce kitschy or easy art By creating with a sacramental vision they are seeing the world charged with the grandeur of God and inviting viewers into that participation T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co-written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality
