which accounted for 43.5% of GDP in 2018      The Arab World Peter Mansfield, 1976 Recounts the political and social history of the Arabs from their nomadic beginnings nearly thirty five centuries ago to the present and profiles the concerns and goals of individual Arab nations      Review of Current Military Literature, 1991      Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1991      Voice of Buddhism, 1982      Empires of Eurasia Jeffrey Mankoff, 2022-04-19 How the collapse of empires helps explain the efforts of China Iran Russia and Turkey to challenge the international order This is a must read to understand the backstory of conflicts from Crimea to Xinjiang Fiona Hill author of There Is Nothing for You Here Eurasia's major powers China Iran Russia and Turkey increasingly intervene across their borders while seeking to pull their smaller neighbors more firmly into their respective orbits While analysts have focused on the role of leaders such as Vladimir Putin and Recep Tayyip Erdoğan in explaining this drive to dominate neighbors and pull away from the Western dominated international system they have paid less attention to the role of imperial legacies Jeffrey Mankoff argues that what unites these contemporary Eurasian powers is their status as heirs to vast terrestrial empires whose collapse left all four states deeply entangled with the lands and peoples along their peripheries but outside their formal borders Today they have all found new opportunities to project power within and beyond their borders in patterns shaped by their respective imperial pasts      The Eye of the Storm Salidor Christoffel Coetzee, 2021-03-02 A Quest for Truth This book is dedicated to the world's most vulnerable people who suffer from atrocities stemming from wars poverty addictions and foremost those who were infected by or died because of the COVID 19 coronavirus A virus that was created in and originating from China Wuhan City in the Hubei province The virus spread rapidly creating immense havoc across the globe sparing no country or human being a virus without borders with devastating effects It is time for introspection and reflection a time for a psychological and spiritual makeover time to remove idols from our midst and honour one God the God of Adam and Eve God of Abraham Sarah Hagar Ishmael and Isaac God the oneness The story of Abraham is retold in the book from a Christian biblical perspective but more so from a Muslim belief the Quran perspective a constructive attempt to align and bridge the divides between nations during these difficult testing times Through the book the author fulfils that commitment and promise made as a young boy to God to spread God's message of hope and love into the world to bridge the cultural divide to promote care for the poor and homeless Similar to the COVID 19 coronavirus God's grace love and forgiveness have no borders The world is in desperate need of spiritual cure and revival across borders It is a world in constant chaos and turmoil instigated and promulgated by politicians and business and country leaders ethical misbehaviour across the globe hearts and minds contaminated by a deadly infected cancerous disease for example lust arrogance and greed fraudulent and corrupt hearts and minds an extremism philosophy and theology in its own right The author sadly lost his wife in 2010 due to breast cancer In 2011 he was on the verge of becoming a tramp in the streets of South Africa Yes a highly qualified individual with years of experience as a financial manager in a big corporate company with 8 years high level academic accomplishments If people ask him How

was it possible he will tell them it is very possible it all depends on every individual's personal circumstances. God the Oneness knows every hair on your head. He loves and cares about you anyway, wherever and whatever you are. The author lived and worked for seven years of his career as a cost engineer for a large oil and gas company in Saudi Arabia. He also previously worked as financial manager for a joint venture oil and gas company in Iran, Arya Sasol Polymer Company (ASPC), a joint venture company with 50 per cent ownership from oil and gas company National Petroleum Company (NPC) Iran and 50 per cent ownership from oil and gas company Sasol South Africa. Both companies were represented on the ASPC board by three directors respectively. He had the joy and fulfilment of visiting many countries during his short life, apart from working and living in Saudi Arabia and Iran. A journey always has a starting and a finishing point, starting life from fertilisation to an unborn fruit in the womb of your mother until you pass on to something much bigger and better: eternal life, heavenly freedom and peace in the presence of God the Creator and Oneness. In the book, Saudi Arabia and Iran are extensively discussed to provide insight to the reader. The two countries are uniquely different but in many ways the same. The author attempts to give the reader a glimpse of life as an expatriate worker in both countries, Saudi Arabia and Iran, a journey never to forget or to regret, a humble faithful committed contribution to mankind in a dynamic and diverse way in a dynamic and diverse multicultural environment. In some instances, the author feels obliged to speak the truth and only the truth because truth matters for the sake of reflection, admission, repentance and necessary corrective action by business leaders, politicians and governments alike to take a leaf from the author's book of life. The Leadership Challenge are discussed using Nelson Mandela, a previous president of South Africa, as an example to explain the concept of Servant leadership. Few images in history are more powerful than that of Nelson Mandela, fist raised in a dignified grey suit walking after his release from 27 years of imprisonment, his short walk to freedom. Mandela was only 44 years old when he was given a life sentence by the apartheid regime for his leadership of the African National Congress, an organisation outlawed by the South African government for its anti-apartheid actions and positions. After providing the reader with evidential background, the last two chapters deal with the author's personal experiences in Iran and Saudi Arabia, respectively, two countries that are way apart from each other. The two countries, apart from being constantly in conflict with each other, are also in conflict with other countries because of their deeply rooted differences in religion and cultures, but more so because of their greed and love for oil or black gold. They are ways apart and indifferent but with so much in common.

The Path to Salvation Heather Selma Gregg, 2014-01-01. In the wake of 9/11, policy analysts, journalists and academics have tried to make sense of the rise of militant Islam, particularly its role as a motivating and legitimating force for violence against the United States. The general perception is that Islam is more violence-prone than other religions and that scripture and beliefs within the faith, such as the doctrines of jihad and martyrdom, demonstrate the inherently violent nature of Islam. Here, however, Heather Selma Gregg draws comparisons across religious traditions to investigate common causes of religious violence. The author sets side by side examples of current and historic Islamic violence with similar acts by Christian Jewish Buddhist and Hindu adherents Based on her findings Gregg challenges the assumption that religious violence stems from a faith s scriptures Instead Gregg argues that religious violence is the result of interpretations of a religion s beliefs and scriptures Interpretations calling for violence in the name of a faith are the product of individuals but it is important to understand the conditions under which these violent interpretations of a religion occur These conditions must be considered by identifying who is interpreting the religion and by what authority the social political and economic circumstances surrounding these violent interpretations and the believability of these interpretations by members of religious communities
