tradition from ancient Mexico The author emphasizes that the truth is already within us but gets obscured as we grow up and adopt societal beliefs and judgments The first agreement is to be impeccable with our word meaning to use language impeccably without judgment blame or harmful gossip The author argues that our words have creative power and when used with love they can break the harmful agreements we have made with ourselves The second agreement is to not take anything personally The author suggests that people's actions and words are often a reflection of their own beliefs and not about us By not taking things personally we can keep our hearts open and not be harmed The third agreement is to not make assumptions The author highlights how assumptions and misunderstandings can lead to unnecessary pain and drama Instead clear communication and asking for clarification are encouraged The fourth agreement is to always do our best The author emphasizes the importance of doing our best in each moment regardless of the circumstances By doing our best we can avoid self judgment and build our own dream of heaven on earth Overall the book's teachings aim to help individuals uncover their inner truth challenge societal conditioning and create a more fulfilling and joyful life How We Love, Expanded Edition
