Marriage Agreement:

Do We Need a Marriage Contract? Michael G. Cochrane, 2010-05-14 Congratulations You've decided to get married. It's a wonderful time but there's more to think about than just the perfect wedding and honeymoon. Marriage is more complicated than it used to be. People are marrying later in life and perhaps for the second or third time. Often they are bringing more assets and more liabilities into the relationship, blending children from previous relationships and generally facing all kinds of new challenges. Marriage contracts, wills and Powers of Attorney are all valuable ways to set your expectations in advance. Do We Need a Marriage Contract is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases. Cochrane includes a sample marriage contract to address the critical issues you need to be aware of including: Protection of assets brought into the marriage, The special practical and financial concerns of blending children into new families, Family pressure to have a marriage contract, Business pressure to have a marriage contract, How to have a discussion with your partner and not spoil the romance, How marriage contracts work with your wills and Powers of Attorney, How to work in a cost effective way with a lawyer, How to avoid the relationship mistakes that lead to divorce. This is your future together. Get it right from the very beginning. Take the advice of Michael Cochrane, a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience in family law and carefully consider the numerous issues that can affect your relationship. Families by Agreement Brian Bix, 2023-08-17 This book explores the increasing use of legal agreements to establish or alter family ties.

Drafting Prenuptial Agreements Gary N. Skoloff, Richard H. Singer, Ronald L. Brown, 1995-12-31 Prenuptial agreements have exploded over the past 20 years not only among celebrities but also for all types of people who desire to protect, manage or enhance their personal family or business assets against foreseen and unforeseen circumstances. Attorneys have been assigned the task of cutting through a morass of issues to create agreements that achieve the goals of their clients while meeting complex and often subtle legal requirements. Drafting Prenuptial Agreements is the first guidebook ever to cover this growing area of family law. Written by Gary N. Skoloff and Richard H. Singer Jr. Skoloff and Wolfe, Livingston, NJ and Ronald L. Brown, Editor, American Journal of Family Law, Aspen Publishers. Drafting Prenuptial Agreements presents a pragmatic approach to preparing successful agreements quickly and effectively in any situation by grouping together and identifying the common areas that need to be addressed. The authors guide you through planning the agreement and the types of issues to discuss with different clients. This thoughtful organization gives you easy access to the tools you need to clearly present the range of choices to be addressed in each type of agreement and situation. Five sample agreements create broad groupings of issues which let you quickly zero in on the concerns parties at specific stages of life and affluence are most likely to want covered by their prenuptial agreement. YOUNG YOUNG EQUAL ASSETS and For young people in the early stages of promising careers where each has some assets and wants to protect these as well as their careers as separate property. YOUNG YOUNG DISPROPORTIONATE ASSETS and For people of middle age or younger where one already has or is likely to acquire substantial assets and wants to protect these assets as separate property while reasonably providing for the needs of the marriage as well as the spouse and any children upon divorce YOUNG OLD DISPROPORTIONATE ASSETSand For a couple with a large age disparity where the older party has substantial wealth which he or she wants to preserve for his or her estate and also wants to provide for disability or incapacity OLD OLD DISPROPORTIONATE ASSETSand For an elderly couple where one party has substantially fewer assets than the other yet is comfortable and where both want to protect their separate property provide for a comfortable lifestyle during the marriage and reasonably provide for the spouse with fewer assets upon death or divorce OLD OLD EQUAL ASSETSand For older parties with similar assets who want to protect their property as separate yet provide an arrangement by which they can live commensurate with their resources Drafting Prenuptial Agreements includes a CD ROM with sample agreements and hundreds of time saving clauses

The Sexual Contract Carole Pateman,2018-06-05 Carole Pateman is one of the foremost political theorists writing in English today In this outstanding new work she presents a major reinterpretation of modern political theory She shows how standard discussions of social contract theory tell only half the story The sexual contract which establishes modern patriarchy and the political right of men over women is never mentioned In a wide ranging and scholarly discussion Pateman examines the significance of the political fictions of the original contract and the slave contract She also offers a sweeping challenge to conventional understandings of both left and right of actual contracts in everyday life the marriage contract the employment contract the prostitution contract and the new surrogacy contract By bringing a feminist perspective to bear on the contradictions and paradoxes surrounding women and contract and the relation between the sexes she is able to shed new light on the fundamental problems of freedom and subordination The Sexual Contract will become a classic text in the politics of gender and will be of major interest to students of social and political theory and philosophy women s studies sociology and jurisprudence The Marriage Contract Lenore J. Weitzman,1981 The Just Family Richard Dien Winfield,1998-10-15 Provides a comprehensive systematic family ethic addressing major issues fueling the family values debate The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Law Anver M. Emon,2018-10-25 This volume provides a comprehensive survey of the contemporary study of Islamic law and a critical analysis of its deficiencies Written by outstanding senior and emerging scholars in their fields it offers an innovative historiographical examination of the field of Islamic law and an ideal introduction to key personalities and concepts While capturing the state of contemporary Islamic legal studies by chronicling how far the field has come the Handbook also explains why certain debates recur and indicates fundamental gaps in our knowledge Each chapter presents bold new avenues for research and will help readers appreciate the contested nature of key concepts and topics in Islamic law This Handbook will be a major reference work for scholars and students of Islam and Islamic law for years to come

Proceedings of the 5th Legal International Conference and Studies (LICS 2022) Faruk Kerem Giray, Henning Glaser, Sri Endah Wahyuningsih, 2023-06-26 This is an open access book In the era of globalization and economic liberalization the free trade applies and begins to be implemented such as the Asian Economic Community AEC the inflow and outflow of food beverage drug and cosmetic products circulating in the world community is increasing rapidly Indeed the halal products circulated and traded cannot be confirmed so that they do not give a sense of peace security comfort and are suitable for consumption by Muslim consumers The circulation of various products on the market both in the form of finished products and raw materials especially those sourced from animals either directly or derived from animals has made it difficult for the Muslim community to trace the halalness of a product. People are also weak in understanding the ingredients and the production process of a food product. Thus, efforts to provide consumer protection, especially for Muslim consumers, are very important and urgent. Therefore, it is the duty of the state to protect its citizens according to the mandate of the constitution above. With this condition, the need for halal certification is getting stronger, considering that Muslim consumers are increasingly critical and need certainty of the halalness of the food products they consume both in terms of materials and production processes, to packaging and distribution. For this reason, halal certification of food, beverage, drug, and cosmetic products is very important. Halal certification is a necessity to provide certainty about the halalness of a product so that the rights and interests of Muslim consumers to carry out their religious sharia, not to consume non-halal products, will be guaranteed. This regulation on the protection of Muslim consumer rights has also been mandated in Law Number 18 of 2012 concerning Food. Furthermore, food safety, quality, nutrition, and halal are the rights of Muslim consumers, which are protected by law and become a government program in food development to meet the most important basic human needs, and their fulfillment is part of the human rights of every Indonesian people.
