Projections of Memory Richard I. Suchenski, 2016 Although the length of commercially distributed feature films has remained relatively standardized since the mid 1910s there is also a small but substantial body of ambitious works that utilize their extraordinarily long durations to give cinema the character of a religious ritual While their methods and overall goals vary considerably these works actively participate in a modernist exploration of the relationship between form and content often taking their innovations to what seem to be their limits simultaneously establishing and exhausting their own paradigms Their makers strove to create cinematic cathedrals monuments to the imagination that promise profound transformations of vision selfhood and experience Unique both in their formal adventurousness and their modes of presentation works like Napol on Abel Gance 1927 Eniaios Gregory Markopoulos 1947 1992 Out 1 Jacques Rivette 1971 and Histoire s du cin ma Jean Luc Godard 1988 1998 utilize their temporal scale to create a particularly intense form of spectatorial engagement that is wedded to or related to a larger utopian program Synthesizing their disparate influences into magisterial edifices these projects treat cinema as a space in which the most ancient forms can be made radically new
