Matisse In The Cone Collection The Poetics Of Vision:

Matisse in The Cone Collection; the Poetics of Vision Jack Flam, 2001 Matisse in the Cone Collection Jack D. Flam, Baltimore Museum of Art, 2001 Matisse in The Cone Collection The Poetics of Vision is an exploration of the artist's work through the rich holdings of The Baltimore Museum of Art one of the most comprehensive collections of Matisse's art in the world The Cone sisters Claribel and Etta acquired their first works by Henri Matisse in 1906 and over the next four decades went on to collect major examples from almost every phase of his long career Although best known for his vibrant paintings of exotically dressed young models and lush interiors Matisse also worked in sculpture and drawing often using these mediums to explore a single artistic idea in various ways As revealed in The Cone Collection Matisse expressed his love of color texture and pattern throughout a career that spanned many styles from Impressionism to near abstraction Jacket

The Cone Sisters of Baltimore Ellen B. Hirschland, Nancy Hirschland Ramage, 2008-07-03 They were friends with Picasso and Matisse They ran in the same circles as Gertrude and Leo Stein They avidly purchased works by Manet Gauguin Cezanne Seurat and Degas at a time when other Americans didn't They were two Victorian women from Baltimore buying avant garde art in Paris attending salons with friends and building a collection that would initially puzzle and eventually awe the art world Over a period of fifty years sisters Claribel and Etta Cone amassed one of the most acclaimed collections of late nineteenth and twentieth century art in America Dr Claribel and Miss Etta were two halves of an idiosyncratic team who used the fortunes of their German Jewish immigrant family to seek out works that inspired and pleased them regardless of public opinion This richly illustrated biography documents their lives from a unique perspective that of their great niece and their great great niece Ellen B Hirschland and her daughter Nancy Hirschland Ramage delve into Claribel's and Etta's world following the sisters through letters and personal stories as they travel to meet the artists whose work would turn their adjoining apartments into a virtual museum The sisters' experiences in Paris in the 1910s and 1920s provide an exceptional view of the bright artistic ferment in the city at that time Only time would vindicate their keen vision and unwavering taste

Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism Enchanted Lives, Enchanted Objects Dianne Sachko Macleod, 2008 This insightful and beautifully illustrated book offers the first feminist analysis of the phenomenon of women art collectors in America Dianne Sachko Macleod brings a surprising paradox to light showing that collecting which provided wealthy women with a private sense of solace also liberated them to venture into the public sphere and make a lasting contribution to the emerging American culture Beginning in the antebellum period continuing through the Gilded Age and reaching well into the twentieth century Macleod shows how elite women enlisted the objects of art and avant garde paintings in their collections in causes ranging from the founding of modern museums to the campaign for women's suffrage Modern Art on Display K. Porter Aichele, 2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris Lillie Bliss and Paul C. Zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G. David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915-1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized Matisse Dorothy M. Kosinski, Jay McKean Fisher, Steven A. Nash, Ann Boulton, Henri Matisse, Oliver Shell, Baltimore Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture Center, 2007-01-01 Contains photographs of sculptures created by Henri Matisse The Art of Acquiring Mary Gabriel, 2002-08-18 For four and a half decades Etta and Claribel Cone roamed artists studios and art galleries in Europe building one of the largest most important art collections in the world In 1949 they awarded all their holdings to the Baltimore Museum of Art In 2002 that collection was valued at nearly 1 billion making them two of the most philanthropic art collectors of our age This is their story Henri Matisse Kathryn Brown, 2021-03-08 Henri Matisse's experiments with form and color revolutionized the twentieth century art world In this concise critical biography Kathryn Brown explores Matisse's long career beginning with his struggles as a student in Paris and culminating in his celebrated use of paper cutouts and stained glass in the last decade of his life The book challenges various myths about Matisse and offers a fresh perspective on his creativity and legacy Chapters explore the artist's enthusiasm for fashion and cinema his travels personal ties interest in African art love of literature and willingness to challenge audience expectations Through close readings of Matisse's works Brown offers new insight into the artist's friendships and battles with dealers critics collectors and fellow artists Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Tracey Watson, 2005-07 A biographical and bibliographical
