Neurobiology of Grooming Behavior Allan V. Kalueff, Justin L. La Porte, Carisa L. Bergner, 2010-05-20 Grooming is among the most evolutionary ancient and highly represented behaviours in many animal species It represents a significant proportion of an animal's total activity and between 30-50% of their waking hours Recent research has demonstrated that grooming is regulated by specific brain circuits and is sensitive to stress as well as to pharmacologic compounds and genetic manipulation making it ideal for modelling affective disorders that arise as a function of stressful environments such as stress and post traumatic stress disorder Over a series of 12 chapters that introduce and explicate the field of grooming research and its significance for the human and animal brain this book covers the breadth of grooming animal models while simultaneously providing sufficient depth in introducing the concepts and translational approaches to grooming research Written primarily for graduates and researchers within the neuroscientific community Autism Is a Four Letter Word Julie Jurgens-Shimek, 2009-03 Michael's autism whether a condition or a disorder was disturbingly detailed in The Color Red Julie Jurgens Shimek's first account of her son's developmental disorder Shock fear and frustration prevailed that is until displaced by acceptance faith and love Autism Is a Four Letter Word Love is the story of that journey The story is poignant Some of the antics are humorous others depict day to day living at home and at school Overall the message of Autism Is a Four Letter Word is a cry for help help from local state and federal jurisdictions from politicians from lobbyists to fund the research and facilities that will keep our autistic children safe that will provide early education to teach self care social and communication skills If you have a child with autism this book is a must read Autism Is a Four Letter Word is a book of comfort and support for other families of autistic and special needs children It will make you laugh it will make you cry and it may make your blood pressure spike Julie Jurgens Shimek gives voice to families of autistics who feel they are alone to let them know they are not She is eager to share her experiences to lend courage to any who are affected and to develop a unified cry from all in the bewildering world of autism Autism Is a Four Letter Word is a powerful account of the progress that is possible that against formidable challenges the Shimeks have learned how best to play the hand When love prevails Michael thrives as his journey continues

Mind Without a Home Kristina Morgan, 2013-09-03 Experience the inner world of a woman with schizophrenia in this brutally honest lyrical memoir Have you ever wondered what it is like in the mind of a person with Schizophrenia How can one survive day after day unable to distinguish between one's inner nightmares and the everyday realities that most of us take for granted In her brutally honest highly original memoir Kristina Morgan takes us inside her head to experience the chaos fragmented thinking and the startling creativity of the schizophrenic mind With the intimacy of private journal like entries and the language of a poet she carries us from her childhood to her teen years when hallucinations began to hijack her mind and into adulthood where she began abusing alcohol to temper the punishing voices that only she could hear This is no formulaic tale of tragedy and triumph We feel Kristina's hope as she pursues an education and career and begins to build strong family connections friendships and intimacy and her devastation as the insistent voices convince her to throw it all away destroying herself and alienating everyone around her Woven through the pages of her life are stories of recovery from alcoholism and the search for her sexual identity in relationships with both women and men Eventually her journey takes her to a place of relative peace and stability where she finds the inner resources and support system to manage her chronic illnesses and live a fulfilling life
