New England Reflections Ashfield Historical Society, Alan B. Newman, 1981 Reflections in Bullough's Pond Diana Karter Appelbaum, Diana Muir, 2000 A dramatic story of the interplay between environment and economy in New England Reflections of New England Ellen Lesser, 1991-04 Reflections of New England, 1997-09-01 From salty fishing villages to classic eighteenth century towns from jagged coasts to peaceful farmland or majestic wilderness this lyrical informative and lavishly illustrated guide explores the natural and human history in 200 color photographs that gives New England its distinct and enduring character Rambles and Reflections Don Waterman, 2024-09-12 This book weaves stories and observations about the local landscape and backroads of New England Whether describing the intricacies of a wildflower or the musings from a weathered slate in a neglected cemetery the reader is left to ponder the beauty and mysteries of local surroundings These are stories full of humor and pathos about the Yankee way of viewing our world Rambles and Reflections will open new and challenging insights into the commonality all around us that we so often take for granted Don Waterman has spent most of his working life as a sales engineer in precision metal components and as a public school teacher He has served as a naval officer on an Atlantic destroyer and as a riverine advisor in Vietnam s Mekong Delta He presently lives with his wife and Newfoundland dog in Harrisville Rhode Island A long time member of the local Burrillville Land Trust he delights in leading nature and wildflower walks Life as it Was, 1900-1950 William Orville Thomson, 1999 New England Reflections, Eighteen Eighty-Two to Nineteen Seven Alan B. Newman, 1981-06 On Holy Ground Beverley F. Edwards, 1991 Figures in the Carpet Wilfred M. McClay, 2007-01-02 Figures in the Carpet presents a stellar roster of first rate historians dealing seriously with a perennially important subject The case studies and more theoretical accounts in this book amount to an unusually perceptive assessment of how the person has been viewed in American history Annotation, 1981-07-09 The Doryman's Reflection Paul Molyneaux, 2017-07-25 What happens when the oceans are emptied of all their fish What happens when three hundred years of human knowledge and expertise disappear before the onslaught of the technology driven world The Doryman s Reflection is simply the most accurate and eloquent account of what transpired in the New England fisheries over the past half century as told by the people who lived it including author Paul Molyneaux Fishermen survive as relics the last hunter gatherers among us Their boats crammed with ropes and nets carry the mystique of a nearly forgotten world ruled by the elements Now an accomplished writer Molyneaux as a young man journeyed to Maine with no experience and a dream of working on a boat This is the story of his apprenticeship with Bernard Raynes one of Maine s last independent commercial fishermen The Doryman s Reflection speaks to those who want to know what really happened and what will happen on our oceans Part coming of age memoir part biography it is a very personal account of what families in this dying but important industry face each day Molyneaux shares his own history as a young man seeking the fisherman s life in Maine and Alaska Originally published in 2005 it has been thoroughly updated to cover the events of the past ten years Told through the life of the colorful and engaging Bernard Raynes The Doryman s Reflection is alive and real and powerful far from a dry pedantic treatise on the economics of commercial fishing Deep Crustal Seismic Reflection Profiling B.L.N. Kennett,E. Saygin,T. Fomin,R.

Blewett,2016-11-04 Deep Crustal Seismic Reflection Profiling Australia 1978 2015 presents the full suite of reflection profiles penetrating the whole crust carried in Australia by Geoscience Australia and various partners The set of reflection data comprises over 16 000 km of coverage across the whole continent and provides an insight into the variations in crustal architecture in the varied geological domains Each reflection profile is presented at approximately true scale with up to 220 km of profile per page and overlap between pages Each reflection section is accompanied by a geological strip map showing the configuration of the line superimposed on 1:1M geology The compilation includes a suite of large scale reflection transects groups of 1 000 km or more that link across major geological provinces and an extensive bibliography of reports and relevant publications Reflections and Comments 1865-1895 Edwin Lawrence Godkin,2019-12-05 In Reflections and

Comments 1865 1895 Edwin Lawrence Godkin presents a compelling collection of essays that delve into the political social and economic landscapes of post Civil War America Godkin s literary style is marked by eloquence and incisive analysis characterized by his advocacy for civil liberties and good governance Through editorial reflections from his time at The Nation he addresses issues ranging from political corruption to the importance of a free press all while embedding his arguments in the broader context of an evolving American society grappling with modernity and reform Edwin Lawrence Godkin a renowned journalist and liberal thinker was instrumental in shaping public discourse in America during the late 19th century His Irish heritage and early experiences in British journalism endowed him with a unique perspective on governance and ethics Through his work Godkin sought to inspire critical thought and civic responsibility prompting him to critique the prevailing norms of his time which culminated in this thought provoking collection Reflections and Comments 1865 1895 is a must read for anyone interested in the historical dynamics of American politics and the evolution of journalistic integrity Godkin s incisive commentary resonates today providing timeless insights into the complexities of civic engagement and ethical leadership Self Reflection Phillip A Crosby,2024-04-04 A writer I grow My mind is open to new

So words do now flow A poet I grow I am old so free to be Anything I know An artist I be My mind clearly formulates Apps paint the mind does see I am the new old Blessed be mind s longevity It still burns white hot There came a point after turning 82 that I reflected on the question do people really know me Do I really understand thus know myself I decided to reflect understand and express who I am through whatever expressive vehicle that moves me At first in was only prose but I soon turned to poetry to flush out what I wanted to say One day while writing I noticed the fingerprints on my iPad screen Morning sunlight was streaming in the window and illuminating the fingerprints I was curious to see how apps designed to colorize old B W photos would handle these apparent B W fingerprints This kicked in my curiosity regarding what I could create using any and all digital image tools at my disposal My creativity was stimulated and after a year of creating have hundreds of digitally created images that please me I include a few early images in this book What impact do I hope this book creates At a minimum I hope when my family think of me they utilize this Self Reflection to stimulate or eventually introduce my essence to future generations I hope others that read my Self Reflection consider creating a similar glimpse into their essence to edify future generations

Faithful Bodies Heather Miyano Kopelson,2019-03-12 In the seventeenth century English Atlantic religious beliefs and practices played a central role in creating racial identity English Protestantism provided a vocabulary and structure to describe and maintain boundaries between insider and outsider In this path breaking study Heather Miyano Kopelson peels back the layers of conflicting definitions of bodies and competing practices of faith in the puritan Atlantic demonstrating how the categories of white black and Indian developed alongside religious boundaries between Christian and heathen and between Catholic and Protestant Faithful Bodies focuses on three communities of Protestant dissent in the Atlantic World Bermuda Massachusetts and Rhode Island In this puritan Atlantic religion determined insider and outsider status at times Africans and Natives could belong as long as they embraced the Protestant faith while Irish Catholics and English Quakers remained suspect Colonists interactions with indigenous peoples of the Americas and with West Central Africans shaped their understandings of human difference and its acceptable boundaries Prayer religious instruction sexual behavior and other public and private acts became markers of whether or not blacks and Indians were sinning Christians or godless heathens As slavery became law transgressing people of color counted less and less as sinners in English puritans eyes even as some of them made Christianity an integral part of their communities As Kopelson shows this transformation proceeded unevenly but inexorably during the long seventeenth century

Reflection D. L. Lagone,2013-10 Reflection is a story of two family s history Bridging a century taking you from Poncho Villa s Mexico and New England Connecticut where in the early twentieth centurysocial status in life was important how you achieved it was not Second Lieutenant Charles Black assigned to General Pershing s expeditionary incursion force into Mexico to capture Poncho Villa falls in love with the daughter of a wealthy horse breeder Their love is a story of hate death and obsession Secrets and lies dominate the lives of three generations of women Climaxing in the revelation that we are not who we have been led to believe we are
