Conversations with Gish Jen John Zheng, Biling Chen, 2018-10-24 Conversations with Gish Jen is the first collection of interviews with the renowned contemporary American author Gish Jen b 1955 whose acclaimed fiction and nonfiction have fascinated American readers for more than thirty years The conversations in this book offer first hand information not only about Jen's authorial intentions but also about her life as a daughter of Chinese immigrants. Spanning more than two decades beginning in 1991 and ending with a new unpublished interview from 2017, these interviews provide readers a sense of Jen's development as a novelist and cultural critic. Jen's insights into the merits and drawbacks of Eastern and Western cultures, including American individualism and exceptionalism and Asian interdependent mindset and living principles, provide us with keys to understanding the identity struggles of the author herself as well as her fictional characters. The comparative approach Jen adopts in her comments on such topics as education, politics, business, religion, and concepts of creativity and success provokes readers to reflect on their relationships with themselves, with the society in which they live, and with the rest of the world. At the heart of these conversations is Jen's sense of humor, which makes the book a joyful read for both scholars and casual fans of her work.

Drunken Angel Alan Kaufman, 2013-04-22. Alan Kaufman has been compared to Jack Kerouac, Henry Miller, Hubert Selby Jr., even Ernest Hemingway; his life reads so much like a great movie that the world of cinema has just optioned his first memoir, Jew Boy, for a feature film. Drunken Angel, his new autobiographical work, drops like a sledgehammer. It is the most gripping, chilling, and inspiring account ever written of a life-long battle with alcoholism and the struggle to write. Graphic in its grit, an education in pain, Drunken Angel is being hailed as the Naked Lunch of memoirs. The book chronicles Kaufman's headlong plunge into the piratical life of a literary drunk and takes us shamelessly through noirish alleyways of S/M sensuality, forbidden pleasures, and pitfalls of adultery, the thrilling horrors of war, plus raging poetry nights, mental illness, homelessness, literary struggle, and his strange, magnificent rise into a sobriety of personal triumph as crazily improbable as the famous and notorious figures he meets along the way. Drunken Angel contains revealing portraits of such literary figures as Allen Ginsberg, Kathy Acker, Barney Rosset, Anthony Burgess, Elie Wiesel, Ron Kolm, Isaac Bashevis Singer, Jim Feast, Bernard Malamud, Hubert Selby Jr., Bob Holman, Sapphire, not to speak of the gutter dreamers, Nuyorican Poets, Unbearables, Babarians, Slammers, Blackfoot Indians, commandos, criminals, junkies, renegade cocktail waitresses, hoboes, painters, and a host of others who each in some way, big or small, play their part in peopling the wildly exhilarating drama of Kaufman's passionate and exotic life. Whether the addiction be booze, women, violence, writing, or fame Kaufman honors us with an explicit honesty that only a writer of enormous power and artistic greatness can attain and his life as Drunken Angel poignantly shows is a profoundly meaningful quest for truth and spiritual values In Fashion: Culture, Commerce, Craft, and Identity, 2022-01-10 For the contributors to In Fashion Culture Commerce Craft and Identity being in fashion is about self presentation defining how fashion is presented in the visual written and performing arts and about design craft manufacturing packaging marketing and archives The book's international cast of authors engage in fashion from various disciplinary professional and creative perspectives i e anthropology archaeology art history cultural studies design environmental studies fashion studies history international relations literature marketing philosophy sociology technology and theatre In Fashion has five sections Fashioning Representations Texts Images and Performances Fashionable Shopping Luxury and Vintage Fashion's Materials Craft Industry and Innovation Museum Worthy Fashion and the Archive Fashioning Cultural Identities Case Studies The Bloomsbury Review, 1988 Has also occasional unnumbered supplements American Ethnic Writers, 2009 Covers numerous ethnic writers and their works All major American ethnicities are covered African American Asian American Jewish American Hispanic Latino and Native American Olderr's Fiction Index, 1987 International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women's movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men's poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men's most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men's lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Pamela Dear, 2001-06 In response to the
