New Housing In Great Britain:

A Guide to the New Ruins of Great Britain Owen Hatherley, 2011-07-01 Back in 1997 New Labour came to power amid much talk of regenerating the inner cities left to rot under successive Conservative governments Over the next decade British cities became the laboratories of the new enterprise economy glowing monuments to finance property speculation and the service industry until the crash In A Guide to the New Ruins of Great Britain Owen Hatherley sets out to explore the wreckage the buildings that epitomized an age of greed and aspiration From Greenwich to Glasgow Milton Keynes to Manchester Hatherley maps the derelict Britain of the 2010s from riverside apartment complexes art galleries and amorphous interactive centers to shopping malls call centers and factories turned into expensive lofts In doing so he provides a mordant commentary on the urban environment in which we live work and consume Scathing forensic bleakly humorous A Guide to the New Ruins of Great Britain is a coruscating autopsy of a get rich quick aspirational politics a brilliant architectural state we're in

The New Housing Shortage Graham Hallett, 2021-06-29 Originally published in 1993 this book is a detailed comparative examination of the housing issue by housing experts looking at the USA UK Germany the Netherlands and France The volume offers an excellent blend of critical analysis and practical policy recommendations including a better targeting of tax concessions a move back to social housing more diverse than in the past and measures for reducing homelessness Perennial issues which remain as pertinent today as when the book was first published are also discussed homelessness housing affordability for people on low incomes changes in housing markets

Delivering New Homes Nick Gallent, Sarah Carmona, 2003-09-02 This book examines the processes and relationships that underpin the delivery of new homes across the United Kingdom focussing primarily on the land use planning system in England the way that housing providers engage with that system and how the processes of engagement are changing or might change in the future Planning market and social house building the three key processes are first dissected and explored individually then brought together to study the key areas of interaction between planning and the providers of social and market housing by way of the range of tensions that have consistently dogged those interactions Extensive illustrative case study material provides a platform to the consideration of developing more integrated realistic and proactive approaches to planning Proposing evolutionary and sometimes radical proposals for change Delivering New Homes makes a bold contribution to finding a better way of delivering the new homes that the nation increasingly needs

Financing of new housing supply Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee, 2012-05-07 This report concludes that the Government must employ a basket of measures covering all tenures of housing if sufficient finance is ever to be available to tackle the country's housing crisis For decades successive Governments have failed to deliver sufficient homes to meet demand The country faces a significant housing shortfall and the financial crisis has amplified the problem 232 000 new households are forming each year in England and yet in 2011 fewer than 110 000 new homes were completed

The Committee sets out four key areas for action which taken together could go a long way to raising the finance needed to meet the housing shortfall large scale investment from institutions and pension funds changes to the financing of housing associations including a new role for the historic grant on their balance sheets greater financial freedoms for local authorities new and innovative models including a massive expansion of self build housing Investing in Britain's potential Great Britain. Treasury,2006-12-06 The 2006 Pre Budget Report presents updated assessments and forecasts of the economy and public finances the effects of policies on long term governmental goals and reforms being considered ahead of the Budget It is organised under 6 main headings maintaining macroeconomic stability meeting the productivity challenge increasing employment opportunity for all building a fairer society delivering high quality public services protecting the environment Amongst the measures discussed are making Child Benefit available from week 29 of pregnancy increasing enforcement measures for the National Minimum Wage a target of 3% savings in central and local government increasing capital investment in education from 8 3 billion in 2007 8 to 10 2 billion in 2010 11 taking forward recommendations of the Leitch Review on skills ISBN 0118404865 and an increase in air passenger duty Selected Aspects of Administration of Publicly-owned Housing: Great Britain, Netherlands, and Sweden Abner D. Silverman,1961 Housing and the Credit Crunch Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Communities and Local Government Committee,2009 In this report the Communities and Local Government Committee says the Government must stick to its long term house building targets despite the credit crunch but a greater proportion of the homes built should be social housing The Committee is concerned that the 975 million borrowed by the Government from its 2010 11 budgets to build social rented housing now is not new money and that the Government has been unable to say how that borrowing will be replaced The Committee urges the Department for Communities and Local Government to put pressure on the Treasury to ensure measures to revive the mortgage markets are implemented immediately increase construction of new social housing both to provide for housing need and as a means of maintaining capacity in the homebuilding industry whilst the market recovers accelerate refurbishment programmes for social housing acquire further social housing through the purchase of unsold stock and street properties consider the purchase of unsold family homes which have been on the market for more than a year encourage public sector bodies to make land available for the development of new homes The report also urges the Government to do more to help those at risk of repossession by considering sanctions against lenders who repossess too quickly and by doing more to protect tenants and homeowners from unscrupulous landlords An Office of Fair Trading recommendation for sale and rent back schemes should be implemented as a matter of urgency to protect the growing number of households falling behind in mortgage payments The Committee would like to see more done to support housing associations including increasing social housing grant where necessary Wartime Planning for Physical Reconstruction in Great Britain ,1944 Bulletins from Britain ,1941 Great Britain and the East ,1918 Housing Policy Paul Balchin,Maureen

Rhoden,2019-01-09 Now in its fourth edition this textbook has been completely revised to examine the current state of housing policy in the UK Exploring developments in housing policy made since Labour s 1997 electoral victory the book addresses current issues including the brownfield versus greenfield debate the phasing out of renovation grants the transfer of local authority housing to registered social landlords boom slump and boom in the owner occupied sector Other topics addressed range from regional policy and housing across the UK to social exclusion community care and homelessness

House of Commons - Committee of Public Accounts: The New Homes Bonus - HC 114 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2013-10-31 The New Homes Bonus was introduced as a financial incentive for local authorities to encourage the building of new homes The scheme is funded from existing local authority grants 7 5 billion will have been redistributed between councils by 2018 19 so there is a lot of money at stake It is clearly vital that the incentives work and the Government achieves its aim It is therefore disappointing that after more than two years of the scheme being up and running no evaluation is in place and no credible data is available to show whether the scheme is working or not So far the areas which have gained most money tend to be the areas where housing need is lowest The areas that have lost most tend to be those where needs are greatest The Department has yet to demonstrate whether the New Homes Bonus works Is it helping to create more new homes than would have been built anyway Is it the best way for Government to use its limited resources to create more homes where they are needed most Its planned evaluation of the Bonus scheme is now urgent

Rowlands,2009-09-10 This book of specially commissioned essays by distinguished housing scholars addresses the big issues in contemporary debates about housing and housing policy in the UK Setting out a distinctive and coherent analysis it steers a course between those accounts that rely on economic theory and analysis and those that emphasize policy It is informed by the idea that the 1970s was a pivotal decade in the second half of the twentieth century and that since that time there has been a profound transformation in the housing system and housing policy in the UK The contributors describe analyze and explain aspects of that transformation as a basis for understanding the present and thinking about the future The analysis of housing is set within an understanding of the wider changes affecting the economy and the welfare state since the crises of the mid 1970s
