New Lease on Life Anna Ambrosy, 1984 Hungarian Language Contact Outside Hungary Anna Fenyvesi, 2005-06-09 In Communist times it was impossible to do sociolinguistic work on Hungarian in contact with other languages In the short period of time since the collapse of the Soviet bloc Hungarian sociolinguists have certainly done their very best to catch up This volume brings together the fruits of their work some of which was hitherto only available in Hungarian The reader will find a wealth of information on many bilingual communities involving Hungarian as a minority language The communities covered in the book are located in countries neighboring Hungary Austria Serbia Slovakia Slovenia Romania and Ukraine as well as overseas in Australia and the United States Several of the chapters discuss material derived from the Sociolinguistics of Hungarian Outside Hungary project Throughout the book the emphasis is on how the language use of Hungarian minority speakers has been influenced by the majority or contact language both on a sociolinguistic macro level as well as on the micro level In the search for explanations particular attention is given to typological aspects of language change under the conditions of language contact The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation

Displacement, Identity and Belonging Alexandra J.
