Australian Constitutional Development Edward Sweetman, 1925      The United Kingdom and The Federal Idea Robert Schütze, Stephen Tierney, 2018-06-28 How should political power be divided within and among national peoples Is the nineteenth century theory of the sovereign and unitary State still fit for purpose in the twenty first century If not can federalism provide a viable alternative model This collection looks at federalism from the perspective of constitutional law Taking the United Kingdom as a case study Part One tracks the historical evolution of the Union and explores the various expressions of federalism that emerged between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries Part Two then assesses the experience of sovereignty sharing with other nations in the context of international cooperation Drawing on the expertise of the foremost commentators in their field The United Kingdom and the Federal Idea provides a timely and reflective evaluation of how constitutional authority is being re ordered within and beyond the United Kingdom      A New Constitution for Australia Bede Harris, 2013-03-04 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

A Short History of the Orthodox Church in Australia LIT Verlag, 2022-12-14 The history of Orthodox Christians in Australia is that of immigrant communities which mostly for political and economic reasons left their countries of origin in Eastern Europe and the Middle East from the nineteenth century Since the mid twentieth century large numbers of Eastern Orthodox have settled in Australia chiefly Greeks Russians Serbs Antiochians from Syria and Lebanon Romanians Bulgarians Ukrainians Macedonians and Byelorussians This book presents five Orthodox Churches in Australia the Greek the Russian the Serbian the Antiochian and the Romanian Christine Chaillot is the author of numerous articles and books on the Oriental Churches in the fields of history theology and spirituality She is Swiss and Orthodox Patriarchate of Constantinople

Jacaranda Humanities Alive 7 Victorian Curriculum, 3e learnON and Print Robert Darlington, Judy Mraz, Matthew Richardson, 2025-08-25      Phenomenal Sydney Marcia Cameron, 2016-10-19 The Diocese of Sydney is admired hated loved and feared While often criticized as no longer Anglican it has at its heart an adherence to classic Anglicanism While to some it is a beacon in the darkness to others it is like a threatening bushfire It is very large very wealthy and very influential in other places Its opposition to ordaining women priests and in many parishes to women preaching mystifies and angers many Anglicans within and outside its boundaries What makes this diocese such a phenomenon The answer lies in its history in the men and women who shaped it in a particular view of the authority of the Bible and in the influence wielded by some powerful institutions that have prospered Its energy comes from the Scriptural mandate for mission to bring the outsider into the community of Christian people but not to leave it there To educate them in the knowledge of Christ in a variety of creative and imaginative ways This book also looks at what Sydney has done badly It may help readers to learn from its past achievements and its mistakes      A History of the 1957 Federation of Malaya Constitution Joseph M. Fernando, 2024-12-09 Fernando examines important aspects of the drafting of 1957 Federation of Malaya constitution related to the system of governance division of legislative and executive powers the conceptualisation of citizenship and the roles of the judiciary and election commission The book sheds new light on the balances that the Reid Commission sought to embed in the constitution and the historical constitutional debates and discussions which greatly shaped the framing of the new federal constitution between 1956 and 1957 Drawing on historical evidence mainly from declassified primary constitutional documents it analyses the submissions debates and discussions among the framers and various interest groups during the drafting of the constitution between 1956 and 1957 to discern more clearly the intentions of the framers on many aspects of governance and distribution of powers embedded in the constitutional provisions This book reveals more deeply the nature and complexity of the constitutional issues faced by the framers and how they attempted to reach compromises between the various interest groups in Malaya It is a valuable resource for scholars and academics of Malaysian Asian and Commonwealth constitutional history as well as those interested in history law political science and important aspects of governance and distribution of powers in the system of parliamentary democracy

The Centenary Companion to Australian Federation Helen Irving,1999-12-06 Published to mark the centenary of Federation this important book explores Australia s national origins in a comprehensive and accessible way A high calibre team of writers has been gathered to write the first ever comprehensive general history of Federation Starting from the perspective of the individual colonies as they made their way towards membership of the Australian Commonwealth in 1901 the book also provides cross referenced short alphabetical entries covering key events people and concepts It approaches Federation not simply as a formal political story but as a social and cultural process maintaining the relevance of nation making by highlighting ongoing debates about democracy sovereignty and progressive citizenry A major contribution to the Centenary of Federation this book should become a standard reference for scholars students and general readers in the continuing discussions of Australia s future as a nation

Everything you Need to Know About the Referendum to Recognise Indigenous Australians Megan Davis,George Williams,2015-02-01 This book explains everything that

Australians need to know about the proposal to recognise Aboriginal peoples in the Constitution It details how our Constitution was drafted and shows how Aboriginal peoples came to be excluded from the new political settlement. It explains what the 1967 referendum in which over 90% of Australians voted to delete discriminatory references to Aboriginal people from the Constitution achieved and why discriminatory racial references remain. With clarity and authority the book shows the symbolic and legal power of such a change and how we might get there. Concise and clear, it is written by two of the best known experts in the country on matters legal, indigenous and constitutional. Recognise is essential reading on what should be a watershed occasion for our nation.

A House of Commons for a Den of Thieves Adam Wakeling, 2021-01-29. In 1788 Great Britain founded a colony in Australia to swallow up its criminals. And swallow them it did: more than 160,000 men and women were transported to the Australian colonies over eight decades. Remarkably, these colonies swiftly developed into robust and innovative democracies. The 1856 Victorian election was the first in the world where voters took a government-printed ballot paper, took it into a private voting booth to fill it out, then put it in a ballot box. And Australians have kept this democratic model ever since. A House of Commons for a Den of Thieves is the story of how the citizens of these colonies threw off the stigma of their criminal origins and asserted their rights. Not only against imperial authorities in London but also those wealthy and powerful men in the colonies themselves who distrusted the idea of mass democracy. And through their success they created a lasting democratic tradition that their descendants have expanded and built on up until the present day.

Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace, 2022-08-04. This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century: the inimitable preacher, evangelist and churchman John C. Chapman. The study situates Chapman's career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post-1960s, a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society. At the same time, global Evangelicalism was reviving, bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re-balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends. Against this backdrop, the study explores the way in which, across a wide array of domestic and international fora, Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life, mission and thought. Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit, impassioned oratory, innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception, the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism's message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism's method. Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism.

A Short History of Australia Ernest Scott, 1925.

The Use of Foreign Precedents by Constitutional Judges Tania Groppi, Marie-Claire Ponthoreau, 2013-03-28. In 2007 the International Association of Constitutional Law established an Interest Group on The Use of Foreign Precedents by Constitutional Judges to conduct a survey of the use of foreign precedents by Supreme and Constitutional Courts in deciding constitutional cases Its purpose was to determine through empirical analysis employing both quantitative and qualitative indicators the extent to which foreign case law is cited The survey aimed to test the reliability of studies describing and reporting instances of transjudicial communication between Courts The research also provides useful insights into the extent to which a progressive constitutional convergence may be taking place between common law and civil law traditions The present work includes studies by scholars from African American Asian European Latin American and Oceania countries representing jurisdictions belonging to both common law and civil law traditions and countries employing both centralised and decentralised systems of judicial review The results published here for the first time give us the best evidence yet of the existence and limits of a transnational constitutional communication between courts

Australia's Arc of Instability Dennis Rumley, Vivian Louis Forbes, Christopher Griffin, 2006-01-12 The idea for this book emerged from a conversation between Vivian Forbes and Charles Eaton following two seminars held in the Department of Geography at the University of Western Australia given by Trevor Soeld and Christopher Griffin more than ve years ago One seminar involved papers from Charles Eaton and Christopher Griffin on the recent Speight coup in Fiji the other given by Trevor Soeld was on the Solomon Islands The seminars were attended by among others Dennis Rumley who on getting involved in the conversation suggested the idea of a book and then followed through on its scope structure planning and possible contributors Looking back now we owe a special debt of gratitude to Charles Eaton both for his enthusiasm and his ideas then and for his continued support throughout the whole project Since that time ve years ago many people have boarded and have left the Arc Indeed the very project itself exhibited a degree of instability At times it even looked as though it might not stay afloat Thankfully several early boarders remained firmly anchored Other authors were co-opted later some at relatively short notice one or two of them under mild duress We extend our heartfelt thanks to all of these contributors for remaining patient enthusiastic and keeping faith with the project Naturally a project like this dealing with such a large and dynamic region will always be out of date
