Shared Wisdom Pamela Cooper-White, 2024-11-19 For twenty years clinical pastoral educators congregational caregivers chaplains pastoral psychotherapists and pastoral theologians have turned to Pamela Cooper White s Shared Wisdom to ground their teaching training and understandings of countertransference and how the use of the caregiver s self in turn impacts the relational dynamic between caregivers and care seekers Now Cooper White updates her groundbreaking book to present new insights on how understanding one s own emotional reactions remains a core competency for ministry With precision and depth Cooper White continues to innovate the theory and practice of spiritual care counseling and spiritual psychotherapy This revised and expanded 20th anniversary edition explores current research on countertransference and intersubjectivity mutual influence and unconscious relationships and intercultural and interreligious dynamics in caring relationships Cooper White examines how the relational paradigm for pastoral assessment and theological reflection that she pioneered now has important implications for evolving types of care relationships As she does so she addresses emerging topics such as postcolonial theory spiritual and religious fluidity and gender diversity CPE supervisors pastoral care and counseling educators and practitioners pastoral theology scholars and psychotherapists looking for an in depth understanding of relationality and intersubjectivity will find the 20th anniversary edition of Shared Wisdom must have resource to build and expand upon a core competency A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

The Challenge of Practical Theology Stephen Pattison, 2007-01-15 This engaging collection of essays showcases the broad sweep of his scholarly and personal interests and experiences and is a key instalment in his prolific literary output which will be of interest well beyond the confines of academic theology The challenging and sometimes controversial ideas contained in this book represent a way forward for practical theology not because readers will necessarily agree with them but because of their potential for stimulating lively debate The lucidity and accessibility of Pattison's style and the clear passion he has for his subject mean that these ideas are destined to penetrate non theological and non academic circles making this book a fitting embodiment of the public theology which its author seeks to promote International Journal of Public Theology Regardless of our beliefs the meaning of life becomes more profound during an episode of suffering Pattison has found a paradigm that allows practitioners to integrate personal intellectual and theological perceptions hence the term practical theology He critically explores the use of terms such as mission vision and hope that have been transferred from religious parlance into the world of health service management Managers wanting change sell this message with evangelistic fervour to convert staff and bring them on board Nursing Standard This collection of key writings by Stephen Pattison examines the implicit and explicit beliefs and value systems that guide practice in both religious and non religious organisations Pattison draws on experience from his work in many different settings including community service volunteering working as a psychiatric hospital chaplain NHS management and lecturing on pastoral studies to promote a personal practical political and popular approach to theology which stresses the importance of responsibility and contemporaneity Broadly themed sections address issues of ethics and value in practice organisation and management Christian thought and practice theology and the Christian tradition and pastoral and practical theology studies The author takes a critical stance towards traditional religious thought and practice and argues the need for reform to make theology more generally accessible and relevant This volume will be inspirational reading for among others care workers clergy managers nurses counsellors and doctors as well as students and those involved in the academic study of theology On Rowan Williams Matheson Russell,2009-01-01

Theologian poet public intellectual and clergyman Rowan Williams is one of the leading lights of contemporary British theology He has published over twenty books and one hundred scholarly essays in a distinguished career as an academic theologian that culminated in his appointment as Lady Margaret Professor of Divinity at Oxford University Williams left this post to serve in the Anglican Church first as Bishop of Monmouth then Archbishop of Wales before finally being enthroned in 2003 as the 104th Archbishop of Canterbury In this collection of essays a talented younger generation of Australian theologians critically analyzes the themes that bind together Williams s theology These sympathetic yet probing essays traverse the full breadth of Williams s work from his studies on Arius the Desert Fathers Hegel and Trinitarian theology to his more pastoral writings on spirituality sexuality politics and the Anglican Church Leadership: The Key Concepts Antonio Marturano,Jonathan Gosling,2007-11-27 This is an indispensable and authoritative guide to the most crucial ideas concepts and debates surrounding the study and exercise of leadership Bringing together entries written by a wide range of international experts this is an essential desktop resource for managers and leaders in all kinds of institutions and organizations as well as students of business sociology and politics Topics covered in this guide include authority creativity cross cultural leadership motivation emotional intelligence group dynamics Healthcare Ethics, Law and Professionalism Voo Teck Chuan,Richard Huxtable,Nicola Peart,2018-10-25 Healthcare Ethics Law and Professionalism Essays on the Works of Alastair V Campbell features 15 original essays on bioethics and healthcare ethics specifically The volume is in honour of Professor Alastair V Campbell who was the founding editor of the internationally renowned Journal of Medical Ethics and the founding director of three internationally leading centres in bioethics in Otago New Zealand Bristol UK and Singapore Campbell was trained in theology and philosophy and throughout his career worked with colleagues from various disciplines including law and various branches of healthcare The diversity of topics and depth of contributors insights reflect the breadth and impact of Campbell s philosophical work and policy contributions to healthcare ethics Throughout his long academic career Campbell s emphasis on healthcare ethics being practice oriented yet driven by critical reflection has shaped the field in vital ways The chapters are authored by leading scholars in healthcare ethics and law Directly engaging with Campbell s work and influence the essays discuss essential questions in healthcare ethics relating to its methodology

Forrester,2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty Interchurch Marriages in Nigeria Josephat Ndubisi Obodo,2023 This Work offers a groundbreaking theological exploration of interchurch marriages among Christians from different denominations Based on extensive research it delves into the unique challenges and opportunities faced by couples navigating relationships between Christian churches Josephat Obodo argues that interchurch marriages hold immense potential for fostering unity and ecumenical dialogues in Nigeria Examining baptism and shared Eucharist this book urges church leaders to embrace these marriages as a bridge building opportunity With thought provoking analysis and compassion the author encourages reflection on the theological implications of interchurch marriages and their impact on the ecumenical movement Offering practical insights guidance and wisdom this book equips individuals and church communities to overcome challenges and celebrate the blessings of interdenominational ecumenical marriages Interchurch Marriages in Nigeria is essential for priests pastors theologians counselors and anyone interested in promoting unity and ecumenical cooperation within the Christian community Confronting Technology Matthew T. Prior,2020-03-16 We are living through a digital revolution which already touches every area of life and will continue to shape the future in as yet unforeseen ways Digital technologies are an ordinary part of daily life and yet they also present an unprecedented challenge to Christians to articulate a biblical theological framework to navigate times of rapid change The work of the French theologian Jacques Ellul is a theological time bomb primed for times like these Accounts of Ellul s career often divide off his sociology and theology but this book argues that Ellul conceived a single project of bringing technology into confrontation with the Word of God tackling the phenomenon he named technique the pursuit of maximal power and efficiency implicit in the technological enterprise with a profound depth of biblical and ethical insight Centering himself on the apocalypse or revelation of Jesus Christ in history Ellul offers a monumental timely though far from flawless contribution to contemporary ethical debates about the uses and abuses of technologies His work blazes a trail that Christians and all concerned for the future would do well to follow as we avoid both the naivety of technological neutrality and the dread of technological determinism Science and the Media Peter J. Snyder,Linda C. Mayes,Dennis Spencer,2010-07-28 Of great utility for every scientist faced with publicizing their discoveries via the media this book addresses questions of responsibility for the balance and accuracy of scientific reporting and attempts to be a guide for the scientist in their quest to inform the general public about their research in honest truthful and still interesting ways Case studies by leading scholars in the fields of bioethics pharmaceutical research Declan Doogan Senior VP Pfizer medical journal editing Jerome Kassirer former editor of NEJM science journalism philosophy of science history of medicine John Warner chair history of medicine Yale public health Ruth Katz Dean public health George Washington University and philosophy of religion Reverend Wesley Carr former Dean of Westminster illustrate positions and points of view and offer unique perspectives on the complex dance between science and the media Provides a compelling overview and analysis of the difficulties of dealing with mass media and collects tips and solutions Includes case studies from the experience of a number of high profile contributors from different fields Provides an easy to read carefully selected and synthesized overview well suited to teaching and as further reading source in respective classes Includes a famous movie from Jose Delgado that shows his attempts in the 60s to demonstrate remote control of a bull Wilderness Frances Margaret Young,R. S. Sugirtharajah,2005-11-15 This celebratory volume in honour of Frances Young draws on and develops the multifarious hermeneutical interests evident in the body of her work Its overall thematic motif to highlight concerns which impacted on her work is the symbolic use of wilderness This multi disciplinary volume begins with an in depth analysis of her work by the Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams The first part of the volume has biblical and early Christian literature as the focus and deals with among other topics Jesus encounter with people of impairment biblical figures such as Miriam gospel portrayals of mountains experience of wilderness in the lives of Maori and Jewish people the temptation of Jesus as interpreted at different times and the redefinition of asceticism in Syrian Christianity The second part of the volume addresses theological concerns with essays which advocate wisdom as a potential mode for doing theology engage with the radical Christian writings of 17th and 18th centuries revisit the problem of sin highlight the latent Christological motifs in the novels of Tolkien and draw attention to the significance of the Quranic Jesus Theology in Service to the Church Allan Hugh Cole Jr.,2014-07-17 As a global religion with growing numbers of expressions Christianity calls for deepening relationships across traditions while also formulating collaborative visions A thriving church will require Christians from various traditions and on varying trajectories to become familiar with one another appreciate one another and work in common service to God in Jesus Christ In this book a group of thirteen distinguished scholars from around the world and representing a range of Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives demonstrate how theological reflection and broad based ecumenical conversations may serve the church Reflecting on numerous salient matters facing the global church these scholars model what may be accomplished in ecumenical conversations that recognize the gifts that come with unity across diversity among those who seek to be faithful to Jesus Christ Common Experience and the Accommodation of Differences Bryce McProud,2005-02-08 The Anglican Communion is facing schism ostensibly over the ordination of a non celibate bishop and the blessing of same sex relationships As Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams is committed to holding this fissiparous Communion together This little book is an attempt at understanding Williams determination to maintain unity while Anglicanism teeters on the brink of schism Fresh Expressions of Church and the Kingdom of God Ian Mobsby, 2014-08-01 This important book poses a challenging question what are the aims of mission and are they being achieved through Fresh Expressions A range of contributors argue that mission is equally about social transformation or in biblical terms building the kingdom of God as well as building the church Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author's professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan, 2010-08-01 Ministry is often examined in terms of who the minister is not what the minister does But the vocation to ministry must be understood as a call to identity as well as to practice one that is rooted in Jesus life and ministry as well as the Spirit's charisms In Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A Cahalan defines ministerial leadership as carried out through the practices of teaching preaching pastoral care worship social ministry and administration for the sake of nurturing the life of discipleship in the community of believers In her examination of charisms for each of the practices of ministry Cahalan presents readers with a Trinitarian foundation noting that the practices of discipleship and ministry have their origin in the very practices of God Kathleen A Cahalan is associate professor of theology at Saint John's University School of Theology Seminary in Collegeville Minnesota She is author of Formed in the Image of Christ The Sacramental Moral Theology of Bernard Haring Liturgical Press 2004 and Projects That Matter Successful Planning and Evaluation for Religious Organizations Alban Institute 2003 She is the past president of the Association of Practical Theology
