More than a century ago John Dewey challenged the education community to look to civic involvement for the betterment of both community and campus. Today the challenge remains. In his landmark book editor Thomas Ehrlich has collected essays from national leaders who have focused on civic responsibility and higher education. Imparting both philosophy and working example, Ehrlich provides the inspiration for innovative new programs in this essential area of learning. Minerals Yearbook, 1972. Production Decline of U.S. Surveillance Oil Fields John H. Wood, 1982. Decommissioning Offshore Structures D.G. Gorman, June Neilson, 2012-12-06. Increasingly over the next few decades the oil and gas industry faces the complex task of decommissioning its offshore platforms, pipelines, and sub-sea equipment as they reach the end of their operational capabilities. Decommissioning involves and integrates many distinct aspects: engineering, environmental, economic, legal, political, and safety considerations. A practical strategy for removing and disposing of these structures needs to be developed which best meets the demands of all of these different aspects. Specialists in these various fields have been brought together for this volume to contribute their assessments of the situation. The result is an important step toward the development of a coordinated approach to the subject. It is essential reading for all those who are involved with major decommissioning projects, their possible environmental impact, and their implications in politics and law. Crude Oil Severance Tax United States.
