

NEW HISTORICISM

- Literature must be interpreted and studied within the context of the history of the critic and the history of the author
- Acknowledges that any criticism of a work is colored by the critics' beliefs, and social status
- The evaluation of how work is influenced by the time in which the author wrote it. In fact, it examines the theories and books that may have influenced them, as well as their psychological background
- The main focus is to look at the elements outside the work instead of just reading the text, thus it also influences others
- Writers express their opinion and ideas within their writing
- Stephen Greenblatt's studies of the Renaissance was well-known as a major figure associated with New Historicism
