New Irish Poets:

Writing Home Chiamaka Enyi-Amadi, Pat Boran, 2019-10 In Writing Home The New Irish Poets more than 50 poets from all over the world explore the many meanings and connotations of the word home. Hailing from places as diverse as India and Italy, Poland and Pakistan, Canada and the Democratic Republic of the Congo as well as the US, the UK and Ireland itself, together they present an updated picture of a changing country while at the same time expanding the very definition of writing from Ireland. The poems gathered here are as various and lively as we might hope for. Some contributors might be said to write home in the traditional sense, describing and explaining what they find in the place they now live; for others, writing home is a determined creative act of self-definition. For all of them, there is the real sense that writing is itself a kind of home building, not least at a time when so many borders, physical and psychological, are under threat of closure across the world.

The New Irish Poets Selina Guinness, 2004 The New Irish Poets is a landmark anthology of the newest generation of Irish writers now making their mark in poetry at the start of the 21st century. Selina Guinness's lively selection covers over 30 poets of all ages from all parts of Ireland who've produced their first collections over the past ten years, offering rare insights into how the freshest writing talents have responded to a period of profound social, cultural and political change in the Republic and in Northern Ireland. Dynamic and confident in their diverse voices, whether conversational, caustic or solemn in tone, these poets open up the world to unexpected horizons, unsuspected pleasures and surprising conclusions. The book supplies a new measure for Ireland in the coming times. The New Irish Poets features all of the prominent new poets who've received major awards and international critical recognition, as well as giving a platform to less well-known new writers published by small presses. Illustrated with photographs and helpful editorial commentaries, the book includes a parallel text selection of poems by three new Irish language poets. Nearly half the writers are women, and there's a broad mix of young and old, ranging from Fergus Allen, now in his 80s but who made his debut ten years ago, to the youngest, Leanne O'Sullivan, who is only 21. Her first collection, Waiting for Her Clothes, is published by Bloodaxe at the same time as this anthology. With its wide-ranging up-to-the-minute selections, The New Irish Poets bears witness to the amazing growth and flowering of contemporary Irish poetry over the past decade.
