New Light Upon Old Tradition:

New Light on Old Art Lawrence L. Loendorf, David S. Whitley, 1994-12-31 New Light on the Most Ancient East V. Gordon Childe, 2014-10-24 This book offers a detailed survey on major archaeological discoveries in the Near and Middle East This classic account focuses on the findings in three great centers of ancient civilization Egypt Sumer and the Indus valley Professor Childe discusses the excavation of the three cities of Mohenjo daro and Chanhudaro on the Indus and Harappa on the Ravi and what these sites have revealed about Indian civilization in the third millennium B C He describes the findings at the numerous tells between Mesopotamia and the Indus basin and in the three provinces of the Fertile Crescent the succession of cultures in pre dynastic Egypt and the rise of the Pharaohs the findings at Ur and Kish and the development of an urban civilization in Mesopotamia Throughout the text the author sets forth the step by step gathering of precise archaeological evidence relating these findings both to the context of their particular culture and to the larger context of the origins of European history New Light on the Old Colony Jeremy Bangs, 2019-10-29 Colonial government Pilgrims the New England town Native land the background of religious toleration and the changing memory recalling the Pilgrims all are examined and stereotypical assumptions overturned in 15 essays by the foremost authority on the Pilgrims and Plymouth Colony Thorough research revises the story of colonists and of the people they displaced Bangs book is required reading for the history of New England Plymouth Colony Massachusetts Natives the Mennonite contribution to religious toleration in Europe and New England and the history of commemoration from paintings and pageants to living history and internet memes If Pilgrims were radical so is this book New Light on William Harvey Walter Pagel, 1976 This book is clearly an essential one not only for the Harvey specialist but also for all students of the Scientific Revolution Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Revivals, Awakening and Reform William G. McLoughlin, 2013-03-06 In Revivals Awakenings and Reform McLoughlin draws on psychohistory sociology and anthropology to examine the relationship between America's five great religious awakenings and their influence on five great movements for social reform in the United States He finds that awakenings and the revivals that are part of them are periods of revitalization born in times of cultural stress and eventuating in drastic social reform Awakenings are thus the means by which a people or nation creates and sustains its identity in a changing world This book is sensitive thought provoking and stimulating It is must reading for those interested in awakenings and even though some may not revise their views as a result of McLoughlin's suggestive outline none can remain unmoved by the insights he has provided on the subject Christian Century This is one of the best books I have read all year Professor McLoughlin has again given us a profound analysis of our culture in the midst of revivalistic trends Review and Expositor New Light on the Neolithic of Northern England Gill Hey, Paul Frodsham, 2021-01-13 These papers highlight recent archaeological work in Northern England in the commercial academic and community archaeology sectors which have fundamentally changed our perspective on the Neolithic of the area Much of this was new work and much is still not published has been overlooked in the national discourse The papers cover a wide geographical area from Lancashire north into the Scottish Lowlands recognising the irrelevance of the England Scotland Border They also take abroad chronological sweep from the Mesolithic Neolithic transition to the introduction of Beakers into the area The key themes are the nature of transition the need for a much improved chronological framework regional variation linked to landscape character links within northern England and with distant places the implications of new dating for our understanding the axe trade the changing nature of settlement and agriculture the character early Neolithic enclosures the need to integrate rock art into wider discourse
