New Living Spaces:

New Living Spaces, 1985 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Armed Services United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services, Cryptic Concrete Ian Klinke, 2018-02-14 Cryptic Concrete explores bunkered sites in Cold War Germany in order to understand the inner workings of the Cold War state A scholarly work that suggests a reassessment of the history of geo and bio politics Attempts to understand the material architecture that was designed to protect and take life in nuclear war Zooms in on two types of structures the nuclear bunker and the atomic missile silo Analyzes a broad range of sources through the lens of critical theory and argues for an appreciation of the two subterranean structures complementary nature Whose City Is That? Culture, Design, Spectacle and Capital in Istanbul Dilek Özhan Koçak, Orhan Kemal Koçak, 2014-06-26 Whose City is That shows that Istanbul is produced not only by strong and systematic efforts corporate influences and or marketing activities but also by individual contributions and coincidences As such the primary purpose of this book is to find the answer of to whom Istanbul does belong presenting the reader with the richness of human experience and the practice of everyday life The chapters in this book are therefore focused on the physical and economic dimensions as well as the imaginary fictional and hyper real dimensions expressing the concern of bringing the real and imaginary borders of the city together The book provides an understanding that for each inhabitant there is another city another Istanbul Each person living in the city creates or lives in another city which is made of their own personal and particular experiences In addition the Istanbul the authors understand and describe turns into something different moment by moment which cannot be defined or identified because of its very nature as a megacity However its flow is not aimless and non directional and each sign is not causeless or dateless In this context in order to make the possibilities of the city visible the contributors to this volume ask Istanbul whose city is it The title of the book enables different academics to ask the same question using different methodologies and subjects The question Whose City is That and the necessity of studying Istanbul using multidisciplinary perspectives brought many researchers from different fields together because the city is larger than one approach and the constraints of one unique field Gathering researchers and academics from various disciplines such as communication studies cultural studies cinema media studies literature the fine arts city and regional planning political science social and economic geography anthropology and architecture enables each to think about the city alone and together so as to create new forms of thought and discourse about Istanbul Extend Your Space Pasquale De Marco, Are you tired of feeling cramped and confined in your home Do you long for more space to spread out entertain or pursue your passions If so this comprehensive guide is the key to unlocking the hidden potential of your living environment Maximize Every Inch of Your Space This book provides a wealth of innovative techniques and practical solutions to help you optimize every inch of your home We ll show you how to declutter rearrange furniture and utilize vertical storage to create the illusion of more space We ll also explore unconventional spaces such as basements attics

Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern Jacqueline Taylor,2023-11-28 The extraordinary life and work of architect Amaza Lee Meredith and the role modernism and material culture played in the aspiring Black American middle class of the early twentieth century Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern tells the captivating story of Amaza Lee Meredith a Black woman architect artist and educator born into the Jim Crow South whose bold choices in both life and architecture expand our understanding of the Great Migration and the Harlem Renaissance while revealing the importance of architecture as a force in Black middle class identity Through her charismatic protagonist Jacqueline Taylor derives new insights into the experiences of Black women at the forefront of culture in early twentieth century America caught between expectation and ambition responsibility and desire Central to

Taylor's argument is that Meredith's response to modern architecture and art like those of other Black cultural producers was not marginal to the modernist project instead her work reveals the tensions and inconsistencies in how American modernism has been defined In this way the book shines a necessary light on modernism's complexity while overturning perceived notions of race and gender in relation to the modernist project and challenging the notion of the white male hero of modern architecture

Touching the Breath of Gaia Marko Pogacnik, 2012-06-01 Arguing that what the earth chiefly needs is conscious human cooperation beyond the material realm this unique interactive spiritual perspective on how to save the planet describes ways to communicate with Gaia herself and become her hands allowing her to use her vast resources to save all the creatures on her surface including humans Because people have forgotten how to listen and converse with the goddess this book purports that she uses natural catastrophes as her hands to get humankind's attention By using the exercises for personal growth readers can learn to use their emotions intuition and feelings rather than intellect and these traumas will be avoided and replaced with joy and companionship
