Revolutionary Democracy in Africa Nikolai Dmitrievich Kosukhin, 1985 Revolutionary Democracy in Africa Nikolai Dmitrievich Kosukhin, 1985 Revolutionary Democracy in Africa, 1980 Revolutionary Democracy in Africa, 1966 Ethiopia and Political Renaissance in Africa Bertus Praeg, 2006 The Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia has made fresh attempts to deal with the intra state challenges to the nation state in multi ethnic societies This book examines how that country is trying to implement a programme of decentralising state power to ethnically based regional constituencies which could be of interest to other countries in Africa The study reveals that the Ethiopian Experiment questions conventional images of polyethnic states This book presents a practical example of the formulation of new approaches towards ethnicity federalism and objective nation statehood attempting to examine the changing meaning of ethnicity and nationalism throughout history in Western Europe to discuss how they impacted on state formations in Africa and to consider why Ethiopia stands unique in the process of state building versus ethnicity The study elaborates the factors which convinced the new Ethiopian leadership to embark on such a revolutionary path one on which each of the country s Nations Nationalities and Peoples is guaranteed the right to self government self determination and even independence federalism and the transition to democracy Political Domination in Africa Patrick Chabal, 1986-10-09 This collection of essays brings together historians and political scientists from Britain France and the United States who from widely differing perspectives and traditions have been involved in the process of rethinking African politics They present here the outline of a new approach grounded in universal political theory rather than on theories of Third World political development This seeks to integrate the history of Africa from pre to post colonial with concepts of political theory as they have been applied historically to the analysis of Europe and America The book addresses a wide audience students of African history and politics of Third World development and of political theory The Ideology of African Revolutionary Democracy, 1984 Africa since Independence Paul Nugent, 2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South

Africa Thula Simpson, 2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC's role in South Africa's struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC's contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies

State and Economic Development in Africa Aaron Tesfaye, 2017-07-20 This book critically assesses the impact of Ethiopia's policy of Agriculture Development Led Industrialization Employing qualitative and quantitative analysis it presents empirical evidence suggesting persistent economic growth The research highlights improvements in infrastructure health care education poverty alleviation as well reductions in infant mortality rate The impact of this economic growth has however had led to only slight improvements in the plight of the poor The author argues that while significant steps have been achieved with measurable economic gains there are still undeniable obstacles within the federal system prevailing patron client relationships constraints on state capacity to efficiently and effectively implement policy and bureaucratic rent seeking in the provision of public goods The author concludes that these problems will have to be resolved before Ethiopia's political economy can achieve the stage of sustainable development

Africa and China Aleksandra W. Gadzala, 2015-09-03 The China Africa relationship has so far largely been depicted as one in which the Chinese state and Chinese entrepreneurs control the agenda with Africans and their governments as passive actors exercising little or no agency This volume examines the African side of the relation to show how African state and non state actors increasingly influence the China Africa partnership and in so doing begin to shape their economic and political futures The influx of public and private sector Chinese actors across the African continent has led to a rise of opportunities and challenges which the volume sets out to examine With case studies from Nigeria Angola Kenya South Africa Ethiopia and Zambia and across the technology natural resource manufacturing and financial sectors it shows not only how African realities shape Chinese actions but also how African governments and entrepreneurs are learning to leverage their competitive advantages and to negotiate the growing Chinese presence across the continent
