Saskatchewan Canada Rainbow Series:

Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province Canadiana ,1987 Handbook of LGBT Elders Debra A. Harley, Pamela B. Teaster, 2015-08-05 This groundbreaking resource presents a wealth of findings and perspectives previously unseen in the LGBT literature Its focus on psychological sociopolitical and care delivery issues affecting LGBT elders reveals both the nuanced interplay between diverse sources of identity and multiple sources of stigma and discrimination Specific chapters highlight challenges and resiliencies impacting subpopulations e g racial groups veterans immigrants examine employment and advocacy issues discuss later life concerns in context and offer guidelines for relevant ethical practice Contributors represent a wide range of fields from psychiatry and gerontology to public health and public policy reflecting the scope and needs of this diverse and complex population Among the topics in the Handbook Family relationships of older LGBT adults The intersection of identities race age sexuality and care network Bisexuality an invisible community among LGBT elders Implications of the Supreme Court ruling on same sex marriage No money no work and you're old Disabilities among LGBT elders responses of medicine public health rehabilitation and social work Handbook of LGBT Elders is an essential reference for mental health professionals psychologists and social workers who work with the LGBT community and the elderly as well as researchers interested in the LGBT community and aging Quick Bibliography Series ,1976 Field & Stream ,1973-02 FIELD STREAM America's largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations Canadian Books in Print ,1997 The Progressive Fish Culturist ,1989 The West and Beyond Sarah Carter, Alvin Finkel, Peter Fortna, 2010 The West and Beyond evaluates and appraises the state of Western Canadian history acknowledging and assessing the contributions of historians of the past and present while showcasing the research interests of a new generation of scholars It charts new directions for the future and stimulates further interrogations of our past This collection encourages dialogue among the generations of historians of the West and among practitioners of diverse approaches to the past It also reflects a broad range of disciplinary and professional boundaries suggesting a number of different ways to understand the west Healing Haunted Histories Elaine Enns, Ched Myers, 2021-02-01 Healing Haunted Histories tackles the oldest and deepest injustices on the North American continent Violations which inhabit every intersection of settler and Indigenous worlds past and present Wounds inextricably woven into the fabric of our personal and political lives And it argues we can heal those wounds through the inward and outward journey of decolonization The authors write as and for settlers on this journey exploring the places peoples and spirits that have formed and deformed us They look at issues of Indigenous justice and settler response ability through the lens of Elaine s Mennonite family narrative tracing Landlines Bloodlines and Songlines like a braided river From Ukrainian steppes to Canadian prairies to California chaparral they examine her forebearers immigrant travails and trauma settler unknowing and complicity and traditions of resilience and conscience And they invite readers to do the same Part memoir part social historical and theological analysis and part practical workbook this process invites settler Christians and other people of faith into a discipleship of decolonization How are our histories landscapes and communities haunted by continuing Indigenous dispossession How do we transform our colonizing self perceptions lifeways and structures And how might we practice restorative solidarity with Indigenous communities today The Northwestern Miller ,1921 Field & Stream ,1990-01 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations
