Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism

Mohammad A. Quayum, 2004 Saul Bellow and American Transcendentalism explores Saul Bellow's moral and philosophical affinity with the writers of American transcendentalism especially Emerson and Whitman. Its focus is on the vintage Bellow or his mature novels from Henderson the Rain King 1959 to The Dean's December 1982. In these novels Bellow highlights a moral crisis arising from humankind's despiritualization and dehumanization which he believes is responsible for an ongoing dichotomy in the modern world. Bellow describes this as a dichotomy of the Cleans and the Dirties in the context of American culture. To rectify this dichotomy and redeem humankind from its current death-ridden state Bellow and his protagonists advance a vision of life that corresponds to the transcendental vision of dialogue and double consciousness or coordination and balance. Like Emerson they advocate 'The mid world is best'. A man is a golden impossibility; the line he must walk is a hair's breadth. Comparable to Whitman they urge the individual to knit the knot of contrariety and act as an arbiter of the diverse.

Saul Bellow and His Work Edmond Schraepen, 1978

Herzog Saul Bellow, 2003-02-25

In one of his finest achievements Nobel Prize winner Saul Bellow presents a multifaceted portrait of a modern day hero: a man struggling with the complexity of existence and longing for redemption. A Penguin Classic. This is the story of Moses Herzog, a great sufferer, joker, mourner and charmer. Although his life steadily disintegrates around him, he has failed as a writer and teacher, as a father, and has lost the affection of his wife to his best friends. Herzog sees himself as a survivor both of his private disasters and those of the age. He writes unsent letters to friends and enemies, colleagues and famous people, revealing his wry perception of the world and the innermost secrets of his heart. This Penguin Classics edition features an introduction by Philip Roth. Seize the Day Saul Bellow, 2003-05-27. What makes all of this so remarkable is not merely Bellow's eye and ear for vital detail. Nor is it his talent for exposing the innards of character in a paragraph, a sentence, a phrase. It is Bellow's vision, his uncanny ability to seize the moment and to see beyond it. Chicago Sun Times. A Penguin Classic. Fading charmer Tommy Wilhelm has reached his day of reckoning and is scared. In his forties he still retains a boyish impetuosity that has brought him to the brink of chaos. He is separated from his wife and children at odds with his vain, successful father, failed in his acting career, a Hollywood agent once cast him as the type that loses the girl and in a financial mess. In the course of one climactic day he reviews his past mistakes and spiritual malaise until a mysterious philosophizing con man grants him a glorious, illuminating moment of truth and understanding and offers him one last hope. This Penguin Classics edition contains an introduction by Cynthia Ozick. For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning
