Mirrors For Men:

Power and Place in the Prehistoric Aegean and Beyond Susan E. Allen, R. Angus K. Smith, Robert Schon, 2025-04-30 This volume celebrates the contributions and impact of our mentor colleague and friend James C Wright on the field of Aegean Bronze archaeology in recognition of his retirement from Bryn Mawr College The title and thematic orientation reflect his scholarly attention to power inequalities in the past particularly as manifested through social access to architectural spaces and landscapes The title acknowledges that Jim s interests and contributions extend beyond the domain of Aegean Prehistory not only in terms of chronology and geography but also in terms of his methodological approaches that have wider application In addition to Jim s colleagues and collaborators more than half of the contributions to the volume are by his students who collectively are but one of many signs of his profound and lasting impact not only on our scholarship but on the discipline of archaeology itself

Mirror, Mirror Mark Pendergrast, 2009-04-28 Of all human inventions the mirror is perhaps the one most closely connected to our own consciousness As our first technology for contemplation of the self the mirror is arguably as important an invention as the wheel Mirror Mirror is the fascinating story of the mirror s invention refinement and use in an astonishing range of human activities from the fantastic mirrored rooms that wealthy Romans created for their orgies to the mirror s key role in the use and understanding of light Pendergrast spins tales of the 2 500 year mystery of whether Archimedes and his burning mirror really set faraway Roman ships on fire the medieval Venetian glassmakers who perfected the technique of making large flat mirrors from clear glass and for whom any attempt to leave their cloistered island was punishable by death Isaac Newton whose experiments with sunlight on mirrors once left him blinded for three days the artist David Hockney who holds controversial ideas about Renaissance artists and their use of optical devices and George Ellery Hale the manic depressive astronomer and telescope enthusiast who inspired and gave his name to the twentieth century s largest ground based telescope Like mirrors themselves Mirror Mirror is a book of endless wonder and fascination

Men and Masculinities in

Christianity and Judaism Bjorn Krondorfer, 2013-02-12 Bjorn Krondorfer one of the leading scholars in this field has collected 35 key texts that have shaped this field within the wider area of the study of gender religion and culture The texts in this critical reader engage actively and critically with the position of men in society and church men's privileged relation to the sacred and to religious authority the ideals of masculinity as engendered by religious discourse and alternative trajectories of being in the world whether spiritually relationally or sexually Each of the texts is introduced by the editor and accompanied by bibliographies that make this the ideal tool for study Men's wear. [semi-monthly], 1909 Male Confessions Björn Krondorfer, 2009-12-03 Male Confessions examines how men open their intimate lives and thoughts to the public through confessional writing This book examines writings by St Augustine a Jewish ghetto policeman an imprisoned Nazi perpetrator and a gay American theologian that reflect sincere attempts at introspective and retrospective self investigation often triggered by some wounding or rupture and followed by a transformative experience Krondorfer takes seriously the vulnerability exposed in male self disclosure while offering a critique of the religious and gendered rhetoric employed in such discourse The religious imagination he argues allows men to talk about their intimate flawed and sinful selves without having to condemn themselves or to fear self erasure Herein lies the greatest promise of these confessions by baring their souls to judgment these writers may also transcend their self imprisonment Metrosexual Masculinities M. Hall, 2014-12-05 Modern men the world over are becoming increasingly fascinated with their image spending more of their disposable income on beautification products and services This book examines metrosexuality highlighting the negotiation and construction of masculinities and sexualities in the twenty first century A Community of One Martin A. Danahay, 1993-01-01 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self referential community of one The Englishman, 1908 Men Vs. Women Thomas F. Shubnell, 2008-02-14 Contains hundreds of lists showing the hilarious differences between men and women Covers dating drinking marriage and more A humorous look from both points of view from the silly to the serious A must read for the curious confused or those who need a good laugh Electric Railway Review, 1908 System, 1921
