Mission In The Gospels:

For All Peoples Craig S. Keener, 2020-08-27 Given this unique locus of today's church this book takes us back to the foundational teachings of Jesus on missions the Great Commission Gospel of Matthew and the Messianic Commission Gospel of John Although these two passages are universal in grounding Christian mission Professor Keener wants to assure that the role of the Holy Spirit is central to Christian living and acting as God's witnesses Wonsuk Ma PhD Dean Distinguished Professor of Global Christianity College of Theology and Ministry Oral Roberts University Craig Keener one of the finest and most prolific NT scholars of our day has produced another gem For All Peoples A Biblical Theology of Missions in the Gospels and Acts blends together rich scholarly insights rooted in an unsurpassed knowledge of the first century world with an edifying and pastoral eye that is always focused on the radical nature of Jesus' call to follow him in his redemptive mission Successive chapters illuminate the seminal contributions that Matthew Luke John and Paul make to a biblical theology of missions The final chapter rooted in the narrative of Acts appropriately ties together these themes by describing Paul's Macedonian vision as a call for the Church to take the gospel from its place of origin in Asia to the mission field of Europe After almost two millennia Keener reminds us just how relevant this call remains for the growing and vibrant churches of Asia today Robert P Menzies PhD Kunming China This is Craig Keener at his best thoroughly expositional and passionately missional Dave Johnson DMiss Managing Editor Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies

Mission in the Gospels Geoffrey Harris, 2014-01-27 Mission in the Gospels considers the gospels through a twin lens first the nature of Jesus' own mission as understood by the evangelists and secondly the desire of the gospel writers and their churches to gain some understanding of their own mission by interpreting Jesus' attitudes and actions especially with regard to the Gentiles The principles for mission that arise out of this investigation shed a good deal of new light on the gospels and the motives for their writing and on their theological insights

Mission in the New Testament William J. Larkin, Joel F. Williams, 1998 This book presents a comprehensive articulation of New Testament teachings on mission from a contemporary American evangelical standpoint Mission in the New Testament contributes a fresh statement of the biblical foundations of mission serving as a catalyst for completion of the church's universal mission in this generation After investigating the historical background of the idea of mission in the Hebrew Scriptures intertestamental Judaism the life of Jesus and the beginnings of the church the book proceeds in a roughly canonical order through the New Testament Essays analyze the works of Paul the Synoptic gospels Acts of the Apostles the General Epistles and the Book of Revelation Well versed in the historical critical method of biblical interpretation editors and contributors alike offer a cogent argument for recovering the missional horizon of the New Testament

The Missions of Jesus and the Disciples According to the Fourth Gospel Andreas J. Köstenberger, 1998 In this exegetical study of the Gospel of John Andreas Kostenberger strives to discover and articulate a thoroughly biblical theology of mission which would have contemporary implications for how the church responds to Christ's mandate

Dictionary of Jesus and the Gospels Joel B. Green, Scot McKnight, I. Howard Marshall, 1992-02-18 Edited by Joel B Green Scot McKnight and I Howard Marshall this reference work encompasses everything relating to Jesus and the Gospels

Christian Mission Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2010-09-01 How did a first generation Jewish messianic movement develop the momentum to become a dominant religious force in the Western world The essays here first investigate the roots of God's mission and the mission of his people in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism specifically in the Psalms Isaiah and Daniel The contributions then discuss the mission of Jesus and how it continued into the mission of the Twelve other Jewish believers in the Gospels General Epistles and Revelation and finally into Paul's ministry to the Gentiles documented in the book of Acts and his epistles These essays reach backward into the background of what was to become the Christian mission and forward through the New Testament to the continuing Christian mission and missions today

The Earliest Christian Mission to "all Nations" in the Light of Matthew's Gospel James LaGrand, 1999 This original work of scholarship clarifies how in light of Matthew's Gospel the first Christians understood and claimed Israel's messianic mission to people of every ethnic group immediately after Jesus' death and resurrection BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Best Kept Secret of Christian Mission John Dickson, 2010-06-08 This book comes out of years of reflection failures and some successes in the task of reaching out to others with the gospel Many Christians think of the task of mission as an entirely verbal activity when perhaps the best kept secret of New Testament teaching about mission is that it involves a whole range of activities that explicitly promote Christ to the world and draw others to him and only a few of them involve speaking Without diminishing or downplaying the importance of speaking the gospel John Dickson shows that on the other hand downplaying the range of activities that promote Christ to the world has its own set of problems It can make those who are not confident about speaking of anything let alone Jesus feel inadequate and self-conscious in the task of reaching out to others Equally it can make those who do have a flair for speaking feel as though they are fulfilling Christ's mission just by talking But the reality is that the Lord wants our whole life not just our lips in the task of bringing the gospel to the world Every facet of our lives can be used by God to promote the news of his power and mercy In this practical guide to the biblical art of sharing your faith John Dickson offers refreshing insight into the ways that all Christians can and should be involved in spreading the good news of Jesus While not all Christians are called and gifted to become evangelists we are all called to promote the gospel through a wide range of activities prayer financial partnership good deeds godly lives public worship daily conversation etc with and without our lips As readers engage with this book grapple with its arguments and hear the stories of people coming to faith they will be inspired to see the whole of life as significant for bringing the gospel to the world and they will be liberated out of guilt and self-consciousness in evangelism into becoming perfectly natural promoters of Jesus Christ

Recovering the Full Mission of God Dean Flemming, 2013-10-04 Should our proclamation of the gospel be in words or deeds or both What do the

Scriptures say New Testament scholar and missionary Dean Flemming takes a look at this disputed question Rooted in the Old Testament and covering the Gospels Paul Acts Peter and Revelation Flemming provides a biblically sound basis for holistic evangelism Mission from a Position of Weakness Paul Yonggap Jeong, 2007 This book deals with mission from a position of weakness from the perspective of Kingdom of God missiology Both in the Bible and history God's power in mission is manifested through the weakness of the cross of Jesus and of his disciples in any era In this book the author asserts that the principles of mission from a position of weakness should be the foundational and guiding value for mission of the whole Church of Christ Women in Mission Susan E. Smith, 2015-02-25 In matters of mission history most major works that treat the full sweep of the church's missional self understanding are less than helpful in understanding women's part of that narrative Smith tries to redress the balance with a comprehensive history of mission that highlights the critical contributions of women as well as the theological developments that influenced their role From publisher's description The four Gospels explained by their writers. With an appendix. Ed. by J.B. Roustaing, tr. [from the Fr.] by W.F. Kirby J B Roustaing, 1881 The Meaning of Mission José Comblin, 1977 New Testament Studies in Missions Harlan Page Beach, 1899 Jesus: the Man, the Mission, and the Message C. Milo Connick, 1974 The Bible and Missions Helen Barrett Montgomery, 1920 New Testament and Mission Johannes Nissen, 2002 Frankfurt M Berlin Bern Bruxelles New York Oxford Wien This book brings together insights from two fields of study biblical scholarship and missiology The Great Commission in Matthew's Gospel is often seen as the biblical foundation for mission The New Testament however reflects a variety of models for mission Each model is examined with regard to historical meaning as well as hermeneutical significance The final chapter focuses on three issues of great importance for the present situation unity and diversity in mission the gospel in relation to cultures and Bible and dialogue models Contents Mission as disciple making Matthew Crossing boundaries Mark The liberating ministry of Jesus Luke Mission and incarnation John Constrained by the love of God Paul Proclamation and confrontation Col and Ephes Hope and Mission 1 Peter and Rev Mission cultures and dialogue

Contemporary Issues In Mission: What Christians Need To Know Thorsten Prill, 2015-03-31 Document from the year 2015 in the subject Theology Miscellaneous language English abstract There are an increasing number of missionaries and church leaders in Africa and Europe whose views of the gospel and the principle of submission are not very clear Some views of the gospel are obviously shaped by postmodernism feminism or liberation theology and while some church and mission leaders understand submission in authoritarian terms others favour a laissez faire approach These different views and attitudes however raise some important questions How can missionaries work together in a team or cooperate with indigenous churches if they do not agree on the nature of the gospel What motivates missionaries for ministry if it is not the Good News as we can find it in the Bible How can missionaries serve on the mission field if they hold to or are confronted with an unbiblical view of submission The first part of this book examines several false versions of the gospel which

Christians encounter on the mission field in Africa and elsewhere today Furthermore it looks at the difference the biblical gospel makes in our lives and calls us back to the cross of Christ as our only hope The second part of this book examines the complex issues of submission authority and accountability in the various relationships that exist whenever a missionary goes out to serve God and His Church Some of the most vivid contemporary problems are addressed from a biblical perspective It is my hope that everyone from sending church mission organisation receiving church and missionaries themselves will find this book an important read to clarify the issues and be better prepared to serve in cross cultural mission Christian Mission in the Modern World John Stott, Christopher J. H. Wright, 2015-11-05 Newly updated and expanded by Christopher J H Wright John Stott's classic book presents an enduring and holistic view of Christian mission that must encompass both evangelism and social action Through a thorough biblical exploration Stott provides a biblically based approach to mission that addresses both spiritual and physical needs Resolving the Tension of Jesus's Mission in Matthew's Ancient Biography Jerry D. Breen, 2024-10-17 Jerry D Breen argues that reading Matthew and all the Gospels as ancient biography is the necessary next step for Gospel studies In particular Breen contends that more specific comparisons should be made between the Gospels and ancient literature Breen stresses that this reading invites narrative critics to place more emphasis on examining the use of sources and the importance of intertextual and historical information that the author introduces to the text Breen places emphasis on the relationship between Jews and non Jews in ancient Galilee and Palestine and challenges the long supported theory that Jesus did not minister to non Jews beyond two or three exceptions Demonstrating that Jesus is inclusive of everyone who comes to him even though he was sent primarily to the Jews Breen argues that the portrait which Matthew creates is one of a Jewish Messiah who is on a mission to restore Israel so that the restored people of God can bless the nations Concluding that rather than two conflicting missions the audience of the gospel is encouraged to view the healing of non Jews during Jesus's ministry as further proof that the Jewish Messiah is bringing restoration to Israel
