Notes Home from a Prodigal Son Douglas Glover,1999 Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1911 RE: Reading the Postmodern Robert David Stacey,2011-01-14 It would be difficult to exaggerate the worldwide impact of postmodernism on the fields of cultural production and the social sciences over the last quarter century even if the concept has been understood in various even contradictory ways An interest in postmodernism and postmodernity has been especially strong in Canada in part thanks to the country's non monolithic approach to history and its multicultural understanding of nationalism which seems to align with the decentralized plural and open ended pursuit of truth as a multiple possibility as outlined by Jean Fran ois Lyotard In fact long before Lyotard published his influential work The Postmodern Condition in 1979 Canadian writers and critics were employing the term to describe a new kind of writing RE: Reading the Postmodern marks a first cautious step toward a history of Canadian postmodernism exploring the development of the idea of the postmodern and debates about its meaning and its applicability to various genres of Canadian writing and charting its decline in recent years as a favoured critical trope The Enamoured Knight Douglas H. Glover,2005 This book is filled with a great love for the art of writing and is a celebration of the act of reading Through the prism of the renowned Russian Formalist Viktor Shklovsky Douglas Glover provides a scrupulous reading of Cervantes's Don Quixote By showing us how Cervantes constructed his novel and how we as readers participate in his magical creation he opens the 400 year old Spanish masterpiece to a new generation of readers Glover seduces us with his stunning prose while making it possible for even the casual reader to understand and enjoy Cervantes's genius BOOK JACKET Cold-Cocked Lorna Jackson,2007-09-15 The first book to explore a woman's way of watching hockey The Holy Bible ... With Explanatory Notes ... By Thomas Scott ... A New and Improved Edition ,1806 An Analytical Index to the Works of Nathaniel Hawthorne Evangeline Maria O'Connor,1882

Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat,2018-03-14 This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku implying in between space and homing in diaspora women's narratives associated with the South Asian region The idea of in between space has been used differently in various cultures but gesture prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds Historically imperialism and the indentured grimit system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British Of course this was not the only cause of international migratory processes The partition of India and Pakistan led to large scale migration There was Punjabi migration to Canada Several Indians particularly the Gujaratis travelled to Africa for business reasons South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system Again these were not the only reasons The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push pull factors The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives They belonged to various ethnicities and races inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society Complete cultural assimilation was not possible creating layered and hyphenated identities These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross pollination of cultures inter racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture language music fashion cuisine and so on Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly Nostalgia loss of home culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives
