Notes Of A White Black Woman Race Color Community:

Notes of a White Black Woman: Race, Color, Community Judy Scales-Trent,1995 In the tradition of Reflections of an Affirmative Action Baby The Alchemy of Race and Rights and The Sweetest the Juice Notes of a White Black Woman explores the meaning of race in the United States the power of racial categories in our lives and the personal experience of being a black professional in an overwhelmingly white world Notes of a White Black Woman Judy Scales-Trent,1995

Raising Biracial Children Kerry Ann Rockquemore,Tracey A. Laszloffy,2005-11-10 As the multiracial population in the United States continues to rise new models for our understanding of mixed race children and how their conception of racial identity must be developed A wide divide between academics who research biracial identity and the everyday world of parents and practitioners who raise and deal with mixed race children exists This book aims to fill this gap by providing an extensive synthesis of the existing research in the field as well as a model for better understanding the unique process of racial identity development for mixed race children Raising Biracial Children provides parents educators social workers and anyone interested in multiracial issues with an accessible framework for understanding healthy mixed race identity development and to translate those findings into practical care giving strategies

Crossing the Line Gayle Wald,2000-07-24 Examines constructions of racial identity through the exploration of passing narratives including Black Like Me and forties jazz musician Mezz Mezzrow s memoir Really the Blues

Janet McDonald Catherine Ross-Stroud,2008-11-24 Much has been written about the state of Black adolescence_often from a sociological point of view situating Black teens in an at risk category However through her characters young adult author Janet McDonald 1954 2007 presents the wide range of adolescent life McDonald especially presents to readers the multifarious views of society in relation to the self efficacious drive of urban teens to rise above their circumstances by any means necessary Janet McDonald The Original Project Girl is a bio critical study of McDonald and her work as it relates to the contributions she has made to the genre of teen fiction It explains McDonald s profoundly realistic fiction which holds wide appeal for teens in search of answers to the coming of age mystery Catherine Ross Stroud in her study of McDonald's works and interviews with the author has put together a comprehensive resource that will be a useful research tool The Biopolitics of Mixing Jinthana Haritaworn, 2016-03-23 Debates over who belongs in Europe and who doesn't increasingly speak the language of mixing but how are the figures commonly described as mixed actually embodied The Biopolitics of Mixing invites us to reckon with the spectres of pathologization past and present placing the celebration of mixing beside moral panics over terrorism and trafficking and a post race multiculturalism that elevates some as privileged members of the neoliberal community whilst ghosting others from it Drawing on a broad archive including rich qualitative interviews conducted in Britain and Germany media and policy debates popular culture race based research and queer of colour theories this book imagines into being communities in which people and places normally kept separate can coexist in the same reality As such it will appeal to scholars across a range of sociological and cultural studies including critical race ethnic and migration studies transnational gender and queer studies German and European studies Thai and Southeast Asian studies and studies of affect performativity biopolitics and necropolitics It should be read by all those interested in thinking critically on the intersections of race class gender sexuality and disability Contours of African American Politics

Georgia A. Persons, 2017-07-05 Contours of African American Politics chronicles the systematic study of African American politics and its subsequent recognition as an established field of scholarly inquiry African American politics emanates from the demands of the prolonged struggle for black liberation and empowerment Hence the study of African American politics has sought to track codify and analyse the struggle that has been mounted and to understand the historic and changing political status of African Americans within American society This two volume set presents a selection of scholarship on African American politics as it appeared in The National Political Science Review from its initial launch in 1989 to the spring of 2009 Represented are contributions from some of the leading scholars of African American politics who have helped to establish and sustain the field The volumes are organised around themes that derive from the unfolding real life drama of African American politics and its subsequent scholarly treatment The result is a window into the political efforts that meld the historically disparate strands of black political expressions into a reconstructed and strategically nimble electoral based mass mobilisation necessary for optimising the impact of the African American vote Sections in the volumes also chronicle the evolution of the National Conference of Black Political Scientists as a professional organisation The two volumes illuminate a pivotal epoch in black political empowerment and provide a context for the future of black politics Identity

Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08 An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women In recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation

some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power Bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lorde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research The book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a m lange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate In a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships Identity Politics in the Women s Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose Multiracial America Karen E. Downing, Darlene P. Nichols, Kelly Webster, 2005 Multiracial America addresses a growing interest in interracial people and relationships in America Over the past decade there have been numerous books and articles written on interracial issues Despite the rampant growth in publishing locating these often scattered and inaccessible materials remains a challenge This resource guide provides easy access to the available literature Topical chapters on the most often researched themes are included such as core historical literature books for children and young adults hot button issues passing identification appearance fitting in and blood quantification interracial dating and marriage families adoption and issues pertaining to race and queer sexuality Each chapter includes a brief discussion of the literature on the topic including historical context and comments on the breadth and depth of the available literature and followed by annotations of books popular and scholarly journals magazines and newspaper articles videos films and websites Other useful sections include a chapter on the depiction of interracial relationships in film teaching an interracial issues course and how to search for materials given changing terminology and classification issues Indexes by race and non print media are included

Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy, 2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America s racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy Critical Disability Theory Dianne Pothier, Richard Devlin, 2011-11-01 People with disabilities in Canada inhabit a system of deep structural economic social political legal and cultural inequality a regime of dis citizenship Despite the widespread belief that Canada is a country of liberty equality and inclusiveness many persons with disabilities experience social exclusion and marginalization They are socially constructed as second class citizens Conventional understandings of disability are dependent on assumptions that characterize disability as misfortune and by implication privilege the normal over the abnormal Consequently it is presumed that societal organization based upon able bodied and minded norms is inevitable and that the best we can do is show sympathy or pity The essays Critical Disability Theory contend instead that achieving equality for the disabled is not fundamentally a question of medicine or health nor is it an issue of sensitivity or compassion Rather it is a question of politics and of power and powerlessness This book argues that we need new ways to think about the nature of disability a new understanding of participatory citizenship that encompasses the disabled new policies to respond to their needs and a new vision of their entitlements Twenty four scholars from a variety of disciplines come together here to identify the problems with traditional approaches to disability and to provide new directions The essays range from focused empirical and experiential studies of different disabilities to policy analyses legal interrogations and philosophical reconsiderations The result will be of interest to policy makers professionals academics non governmental organizations and grassroots activists

The Interracial Experience Ursula M. Brown, 2000-11-30 The number of black white mixed marriages increased by 504% in the last 25 years By offering relevant demographic research and sociocultural data as well as a series of intensely personal and revealing vignettes Dr Brown investigates how mixed race people cope in a world that has shoehorned them into a racial category that denies half of their physiological and psychological existence She also addresses their struggle for acceptance in the black and white world and the racist abuses many of them have suffered Brown interweaves research findings with interviews of children of black white interracial unions to highlight certain psychosocial phenomenon or experiences She looks at the history of interracial marriages in the United States and discusses the scientific and social theories that underlie the racial bigotry suffered by mixed people Questions of racial identity conflict and self esteem are treated as are issues of mental health An important look at contemporary mixed race issues that will be of particular interest to scholars researchers students and professionals dealing with race family and mental health concerns

The Constitutional Underclass Evan Gerstmann, 1999-03-15 When the Supreme Court struck down Colorado s Amendment 2 which would have nullified all state and local laws protecting gays and lesbians from discrimination it was widely regarded as a victory for gay rights Yet many gays and lesbians still risk losing their jobs custody of their children and even their liberty under the law Using the Colorado initiative as his focus Gerstmann untangles the complex standards and subtle rhetoric the Supreme Court uses to apply the equal protection clause The Court divides people into legal classes that receive varying levels of protection gays and lesbians and other groups such as the elderly and the poor receive the least Gerstmann reveals how these standards are used to favor certain groups over others and also how Amendment 2 advocates used the Court s doctrine to convince voters that gays and lesbians were seeking special rights in Colorado Concluding with a call for wholesale reform of equal protection jurisprudence this book is essential reading for anyone interested in fair coherent and truly equal protection under the law The Cosby Cohort Cherise A.

Harris,2013-02-14 The Cosby Cohort examines the childhood experiences of second generation middle class Blacks who grew up in mostly White spaces during the 1980s and 1990s This probing book explores their journey to upward mobility including the discrimination they faced in White neighborhoods and schools the extraordinary pressures placed upon them to achieve the racial lessons imparted to them by their parents their tenuous relationships with Black children of other classes and the impact that all of these experiences had on their adult racial identities At young ages this generation of middle class Blacks whom Harris coins as the Cosby Cohort was faced with racial displacement frustration and the ever present pressure to emerge victorious against the pull of downward mobility Even in adulthood they continue to negotiate the tensions between upward mobility and maintaining ties to the larger Black community and culture While these young Blacks may have grown up watching The Cosby Show as the book reveals their stories indicate a much more complex reality than portrayed by the show

Shades of Gray Molly Littlewood McKibbin,2018-01-01 In Shades of Gray Molly Littlewood McKibbin offers a social and literary history of multiracialism in the twentieth century United States She examines the African American and white racial binary in contemporary multiracial literature to reveal the tensions and struggles of multiracialism in American life through individual consciousness social perceptions societal expectations and subjective struggles with multiracial identity McKibbin weaves a rich sociohistorical tapestry around the critically acclaimed works of Danzy Senna Caucasia 1998 Rebecca Walker Black White and Jewish Autobiography of a Shifting Self 2001 Emily Raboteau The Professor's Daughter 2005 Rachel M Harper Brass Ankle Blues 2006 and Heidi Durrow The Girl Who Fell from the Sky 2010 Taking into account the social history of racial classification and the literary history of depicting mixed race she argues that these writers are producing new representations of multiracial identity Shades of Gray examines the current opportunity to define racial identity after the civil rights black power and multiracial movements of the late twentieth century changed the sociopolitical climate of the United States and helped revolutionize the racial consciousness of the nation McKibbin makes the case that twenty first century literature is able to represent multiracial identities for the first time in ways that do not adhere to the dichotomous conceptions of race that have until now determined how racial identities could be expressed in the United States

The Perils of Identity Caroline Dick,2011-11-15 Calls for the provision of group rights are a common part of politics in Canada Many liberal theorists consider identity claims a necessary condition of equality but do these claims do more harm than good To answer this question Caroline Dick engages in a critical analysis of liberal identity driven theories and their application in cases such as Sawridge Band v Canada which sets a First Nation's right to self determination against indigenous women's right to equality She contrasts Charles Taylor's theory of identity recognition Will Kymlicka's cultural theory of minority rights and Avigail Eisenberg's theory of identity related interests with an alternative rights framework that account for both group and in group differences Dick concludes that the problem is not the concept of identity itself but the way in which prevailing conceptions of identity and group rights obscure intragroup differences Instead she proposes a politics of intragroup difference that has the power to transform rights discourse in Canada Buddhist Fundamentalism and Minority Identities in Sri Lanka Tessa J. Bartholomeusz, Chandra R. de Silva, 1998-07-10 This examination of Sri Lanka's ethnic and religious minorities links the past with the present through a treatment of Sinhala Buddhist fundamentalist development in the late nineteenth century and its hegemony in the late twentieth Wedding as Text Wendy Leeds-Hurwitz, 2002-12-18 This volume using intercultural weddings as its focus examines what occurs when the signs codes of different cultures come into contact influence one another For scholars advanced level students of interpersonal nonverbal intercultural comm Vanishing Eden Michael Maly, Heather Dalmage, 2016 For many whites desegregation initially felt like an attack on their community But how has the process of racial change affected whites understanding of community and race In Vanishing Eden Michael Maly and Heather Dalmage provide an intriguing analysis of the experiences and memories of whites who lived in Chicago neighborhoods experiencing racial change during the 1950s through the 1980s They pay particular attention to examining how young people made sense of what was occurring and how this experience impacted their lives Using a blend of urban studies and whiteness studies the authors examine how racial solidarity and whiteness were created and maintained often in subtle and unreflective ways Vanishing Eden also considers how race is central to the ways social institutions such as housing education and employment function Surveying the shifting social economic and racial contexts the authors explore how race and class at local and national levels shaped the organizing strategies of those whites who chose to stay as racial borders began to change
