Notes On A Cowardly Lion The Biography Of Bert Lahr:

Notes on a Cowardly Lion John Lahr, 2013-01-22 John Lahr's stunning and complex biography of his father the legendary actor and comedian Bert Lahr. Notes on a Cowardly Lion is John Lahr's masterwork, an all-encompassing biography of his father the comedian and performer Bert Lahr. Best known as the Cowardly Lion in MGM's classic The Wizard of Oz, Lahr was a consummate artist whose career spanned burlesque, vaudeville, Broadway, and Hollywood. While he could be equally raucous and polished in public, Lahr was painfully insecure and self-absorbed in private, keeping his family at arm's length as he quietly battled his inner demons. Told with an impressive objectivity and keen understanding of the construction and destruction of the performer, Notes on a Cowardly Lion is more than one man's quest to understand his father; it is an extraordinary examination of a life in American show business.

1939 Thomas S. Hischak, 2017-06-16 What do Babes in Arms, Beau Geste, Gunga Din, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Only Angels Have Wings, and Young Mr. Lincoln all have in common? They are all classic films released in the same year, but none of them received Academy Award nominations for best picture. Why? In that same year, Hollywood produced Dark Victory, Goodbye Mr. Chips, Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, and Ninotchka, as well as two of the most beloved films of all time, Gone with the Wind and The Wizard of Oz. In 1939, Hollywood created an unprecedented number of great films, a year that has yet to be surpassed in cinematic achievement. In 1939, Hollywood's Greatest Year, Thomas S. Hischak looks at the most remarkable 365 days in film history, arranged chronologically from January 1 to December 31, 1939. Each entry covers one day and features major news events, national and international, as well as minor curiosities or news items that would prove to be more important in the future. The activities on Broadway, radio, the music business, literature, and other arts are included, as are noteworthy sporting events. Most significantly, this book provides a full description and commentary on the Hollywood movies that were released on that day. All 510 feature films from all the Hollywood studios are included in the book, along with notable shorts, cartoons, newsreels, and foreign releases. While others have looked at the movie highlights of this momentous year, Hischak evaluates Hollywood's entire screen output of 1939, from B pictures and serial installments to the international blockbusters, and every film in between. 1939, Hollywood's Greatest Year, is a captivating look at this phenomenon and will fascinate any film aficionado.

A Portrait of the Artist as Australian Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2004 This book is the first critical assessment of Humphries' entire oeuvre, especially his career as an author. Arguing that Humphries is one of Australia's greatest writers, the author reveals a multi-faceted artist whose success is rooted in the British music hall tradition. Dadaism and grotesquerie, being Australian, has also fundamentally shaped the performer and writer, and the author's defence of Humphries against charges of expatriatism is pertinent to the debate on Australian national identity.
