probes the very nature of imagination and reveals how the force of imagination extends into all spheres of human life While drawing critically on the entire history of philosophy Sallis's work takes up a vantage point determined by the contemporary deconstruction of the classical opposition between sensible and intelligible Thus in reinterrogating the nature of imagination Force of Imagination carries out a radical turn to the sensible and to the elemental in nature Liberated from subjectivity imagination is shown to play a decisive role both in drawing together the moments of our experience of sensible things and in opening experience to the encompassing light atmosphere earth and sky Set within this elemental expanse the human sense of time of self and of the other proves to be inextricably linked to imagination and to nature By showing how imagination is formative for the very opening upon things and elements this work points to the revealing power of poetic imagination and casts a new light on the nature of art John Sallis is Liberal Arts Professor of Philosophy at Pennsylvania State University His previous books include Being and Logos Reading the Platonic Dialogues Shades Of Painting at the Limit Stone Chorology On Beginning in Plato's Timaeus all published by Indiana University Press Crossings Nietzsche and the Space of Tragedy and Double Truth Studies in Continental Thought John Sallis editor Contents Prolusions On Not Simply Beginning Remembrance Duplicity of the Image Spacing the Image Tractive Imagination The Elemental Temporalities Proprieties Poetic Imagination
