Monthly Bibliography United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1986 Resolving the Security Dilemma in Europe Bjørn Møller, 1991 For the first time since the beginning of the Cold War more than 40 years ago the political determinants of military security in Europe are changing much more quickly than the technological ones Non offensive defence is now a more acceptable strategy than it was before and this book points towards realistic solutions to the problems of excessive dependence on nuclear weapons and/or self-defeating offensive force structures The ideas examined are especially important for British and American audiences since the Anglo-Saxon countries are the ones most wedded to NATO orthodoxy and therefore the slowest to react to the current wave of change World Encyclopedia of Peace, 1986

Coexistence, Cooperation and Common Security Joseph Rotblat, Laszlo Valki, 1988-07-29 To remove the threat of nuclear annihilation changes in attitudes are required such as the acceptance of the concept of common security to take the place of reliance on nuclear deterrence to keep the peace This book gives an insight into thinking about ways to deal with the crisis Deterrence and the New Global Security Environment Ian R. Kenyon, John Simpson, 2013-10-18 This collection of papers rigorously examines the current place of deterrence in international security relations delivering the best of contemporary thinking This is a special issue of the leading journal Contemporary Security Policy It shows how and why nuclear deterrence was the central organizing mechanism for international security relations in the second half of the twentieth century It has been replaced by a new global security environment in which the central role of deterrence both nuclear and otherwise appears to have diminished The Cold War has been succeeded by a new state of play This book will be of interest to students of military and naval history and security studies Peace News for Nonviolent Revolution ,1986
