

Washington Diary 1917

A watercolor taken from my Washington Diary

Author's note: I began to have romantic attachments at the age of fourteen. I was particularly fascinated by Morton Hoyt. Morton was slovenly and always had a cigarette hanging from his mouth, which I found appealing. He seemed so much older than the other boys I knew and I felt that through him I was stepping into grown-up life.

Everything I have written before has no meaning. I have met Morton. O, dear diary, I could not believe that such a person as Morton existed. He is so beautiful. His eyes look as though they had been put in with dirty fingers. Lovely blue and gray shadows all around them.

Mother hates Morton. She says that he is too
