Patty Fairfield Carolyn Wells,2018-08-12 Patty Fairfield By Carolyn Wells Excerpt ough the country at such break neck speed It s like the enchanted carpet isn t it Miss Powers she said as they slid through a thick grove and then out into the sunshine again What is what carpet asked Miss Powers looking down at the floor of the car Oh not a real carpet said Patty politely repressing a smile at the elder lady s ignorance of fairy lore I mean for us to go scooting along so fast is like the travelers on the magicians carpet Don t you know the carpet would move of itself wherever he told it to We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
