Popular Protest In The East German Revolution Judgements On The Street:

Popular Protest in East Germany Gareth Dale, 2006-05-02 Popular Protest in the East German Revolution is an incisive new study of dissent and protest in the German Democratic Republic focusing on the upheaval of 1989 1990 The New Right in the New Europe Seán Hanley, 2007-08-07 This book considers the emergence of centre right parties in Eastern Europe following the fall of communism focusing primarily on the case of the Czech Republic Although the country with the strongest social democratic traditions in Eastern Europe the Czech Republic also produced the region's strongest and most durable party of the free market right in Václav Klaus Civic Democratic Party ODS Seán Hanley considers the different varieties of right wing politics that emerged in post communist Europe exploring in particular detail the origins of the Czech neo liberal right tracing its genesis to the reactions of dissidents and technocrats to the collapse of 1960s reform communism He argues that rather than being shaped by distant historical legacies the emergence of centre right parties can best be understood by examining the responses of counter elites outside or marginal to the former communist party state establishment to the collapse of communism and the imperatives of market reform and decommunization This volume goes on to consider the emergence of right wing forces in the disintegrating Civic Forum movement in 1990 the foundation of the ODS the right's period in office under Klaus in 1992-97 and its subsequent divisions and decline It concludes by analyzing the ideology of the Czech Right and its growing euroscepticism

The Utopian Globalists Jonathan Harris, 2013-01-02 THE UTOPIAN GLOBALISTS Crossing continents historical periods and cultural genres Jonathan Harris skilfully traces the evolution of utopian ideals from early modernism to the spectacularised and biennialised or banalised as some would say contemporary art world of today Michael Asbury University of the Arts London The Utopian Globalists is the second in a trilogy of books by Jonathan Harris examining the contours forces materials and meanings of the global art world along with its contexts of emergence since the early twentieth century The first of the three studies Globalization and Contemporary Art Wiley Blackwell 2011 anatomized the global art system through an extensive anthology of over 30 essays contextualized through multiple thematic introductions The final book in the series Contemporary Art in a Globalized World forthcoming Wiley Blackwell combines the historical and contemporary perspectives of the first and second books in an account focused on the mediatizations shaping and representing contemporary art and its circuits of global production dissemination and consumption This innovative and revealing history examines artists whose work embodies notions of revolution and human social transformation The clearly structured historical narrative takes the reader on a cultural odyssey that begins with Vladimir Tatlin's constructivist model for a Monument to the Third International 1919 a statement of utopian globalist intent via Picasso's 1940s commitment to Soviet communism and John and Yoko's Montreal Bed-in to what the author calls the late globalism of the Unilever Series at London's Tate Modern The book maps the ways artists and their work engaged with and offered commentary on modern spectacle in both capitalist and socialist modernism throughout the eras of the Russian

Revolution the Cold War and the increasingly globalized world of the past 20 years In doing so Harris explores the idea that the utopian globalist lineage in art remains torn between its yearning for freedom and a deepening identification with spectacle as a media commodity to be traded and consumed Exit-Voice Dynamics and the Collapse of East Germany Steven Pfaff,2006-07-10 A critical and comparative reexamination of the East German revolution of 1989 and its aftermath suggesting which causal mechanisms account for the collapse of the East German state and German reunification
